U.S. Dump Goes Up

Juggling Denied

TORONTO (CP)—Mark Tanz, president of Aetna Investment Corp., said Friday statements made in the Commons Thursday by Frank Howard, NDP member for Skeena, regarding the operations of the company are untrue in every respect.

Mr. Howard said in the Commons that Aetna juggled stock dealings in an unscrupulous way so that "a few fellows in the know" made hundreds of thousands of dollars.

"The statements as reported in the press as made by Mr. Howard in the House of Commons last night regarding Aetna Investment Corp. are completely untrue in every respect and I can only attribute his remarks to the fact that he was misinformed or lacked the true information regarding this company," Mr. Tanz said in a statement.

Fund Donors Snap Record

A record $942.80 Friday lifted the Colonist 500 Fund total more than $200 over the fund total for this same day last year.

Dec. 10 last year the fund total stood at $6,777.19. Today it stands at $6,777.19.

And numerous are the donors to the fund. From towing companies to fraternal organizations, from Cubs and Brownies to In Memoriams, from private individuals to just initials, from Anonymous, from sailors.

Tuesday a heartwarming donation was received from Michael McKibben, 6, of 1234 Oakmount.

Michael, a victim of cerebral palsy, receives a $1 per month allowance.

"Michael figures he's buying some little boy a present," Mrs. McKibben said of her son's $2 donation.

Likely more than one little boy, Michael!

Any good-hearted Victorian can help the 500 neediest families in the area to a little brighter Christmas by sending or bringing in a donation to The Daily Colonist, 2631 Douglas, or Avis Rent-A-Car, 800 Douglas.

The Avis office is open Sundays and the company's parking lot is available to those wishing to make a donation.

Serious Pneumonia Or Ticklish Cough?

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — Jack Ruby, the stubby strip joint boss who killed Lee Harvey Oswald, was taken to Parkland Hospital late Friday with an illness described as a serious case of pneumonia.

"That guy's dying," said Ruby's sister, Eva Grant.

The jail doctor said Ruby had a "throat-tickling kind of cough"—and no fever.

The hospital said the admission diagnosis was pneumonia and listed Ruby's condition as serious.

Sheriff Bill Decker said he ordered Ruby transferred to the hospital on the advice of Dr. J. M. Pickard, county health officer.

Dr. John W. Callahan, Pickard's assistant, said he had been seeing Ruby daily for two weeks because of a cold.

"I examined him at 10 a.m. today and his cold seemed to be subsiding. I thought he was improving. I was surprised to hear tonight that he had gone to the hospital."

Mrs. Grant visited Ruby in his hospital room and then told a reporter: "I'm not leaving. I'll be here all night. I don't even trust the hospital. . . . That guy's dying."

Except for defence claims that he was mentally sick, it was Ruby's first reported illness since he gunned down Oswald, later named by the Warren Commission as assassin of President John F. Kennedy, Nov. 24, 1963, two days after the assassination.

In February, 1964 he was

given the death sentence for murdering Oswald.

The Texas Court of Criminal Appeals ordered a new trial for Ruby recently, and last week Judge Louis Holland set the second trial for Wichita Falls, probably in February.

Parkland Hospital issued this statement: "Jack Ruby was admitted to Parkland Hospital at 5:15 this afternoon. His condition was listed as serious. The admitting diagnosis was pneumonia."

Ruby was taken to a private room and hospital authorities said only visitors approved by Decker would be permitted to see him.

Ruby's sister arrived at the hospital soon after her brother. She told reporters he had been ill for three weeks and had not been properly treated.

Decker said, "I understand he's had a cold for several weeks." But he said Ruby had not been exposed while in jail and added "this all came about because of a routine examination" by Dr. Callahan.

Smog Heats Montreal

MONTREAL (CP) — A heavy smog accompanied by record high temperatures of 47.7 degrees for Dec. 9 enveloped Montreal Friday.

The conditions were expected to lessen in intensity as cooler air was forecast although rain also was expected.

PRESSURE ON IN RHODESIA

By ANTHONY WHITE

SALISBURY (Reuters) —Rhodesian industrial and business leaders are reported to be increasing pressure on Prime Minister Ian Smith and his white-minority regime to make a final attempt to settle the independence crisis with Britain.

Worried at the impact mandatory sanctions might have on Rhodesia's still-developing economy, they have been urging Smith to try some new initiative that could result in Britain's suspending its appeal to the United Nations Security Council to slap stiff trade embargoes on Rhodesia.

SLIM CHANCE

But a leading commercial figure, who reported the move, said he gives the businessmen only a slim chance of success.

The Smith regime seized independence from Britain last year rather than submit to British demands for eventual Negro-majority rule.

MAIN QUESTION

Among Rhodesians the main question still is unanswered: Will the country now become a republic?

Smith warned that if Britain were to take the Rhodesian issue to the UN it would be the same as cutting the country out of the Commonwealth. In which case, he said, Rhodesia would become a republic whether it liked it or not.

QUESTION EVADED

But Friday, Smith skirted around the possibility of an early declaration of a republic. He told reporters: "We haven't given this any serious thought. I think what we've got to do is to let the dust settle."

Smith said he does not regard Britain's call for mandatory UN sanctions as the end of hopes for a negotiated settlement.

MUCH OPPOSITION

Meanwhile, Britain's sanctions move roused opposition from all three political parties in neighboring, white-ruled South Africa.

Premier John Vorster announced after a meeting with Opposition Leader Sir de Villiers Graaff in Johannesburg Thursday night that the "standpoints in the (South African) government remains a policy of formal neutrality in what it regards as a domestic dispute."

But Vorster said on several occasions recently that his government is irrevocably opposed to trade sanctions and boycotts against anyone. Graaff has urged all-out support for Smith since Rhodesia's unilateral declaration of independence a year ago.

Strike Fought

MONTREAL (CP) — Management and union negotiators are expected to hold talks this weekend in a bid to avert a threatened strike of 350 mail truck drivers that would paralyze Montreal's Christmas mail deliveries.

Oil No Worry To Ian Smith

LONDON (Reuters)—Rhodesian Premier Ian Smith said in a television interview Friday night he is not worried about a possible oil embargo against his country.

Smith also said he could not declare Rhodesia a republic until he has obtained a mandate from the Rhodesian people.

Asked if he agreed Rhodesia could not survive a successful oil embargo, Smith said, "I've no idea what a successful oil embargo would be like."

Asked if he had plans to stop an oil embargo or to survive it, Smith said, "I have no worries as far as that is concerned."

Zambia Lashes U.K. Selfishness

UNITED NATIONS (CP) — George Brown, in a restrained reply, called the Zambian statement "unworthy and untrue."

Kapwepwe said the British motion asking the Security Council to invoke selective, mandatory sanctions against Rhodesia exports is "another trap to bind African governments and this council to to."

Lonely Ancient Wants Divorce

HATTIESBURG, Miss (AP) — Sylvester Magee, who began life as a slave and claims to be 125 years old, has filed suit to divorce his wife on grounds she deserted him.

Court records in Forrest County showed Friday Magee had sued for divorce, claiming Marie Magee, who now lives in Poughkeepsie, N.Y., left him in 1965.

Magee said he still loves his wife and, because of his health and age, he needs her companionship but she steadfastly refuses to return to his bed and board.

Magee does not seek custody of the couple's 16-year-old daughter Marie, who was born in 1950 when her father was 100.

Although exact proof is hard to come by, it's generally accepted Magee was born in Carpet, N.C., May 28, 1841, and was sold to a Mississippi plantation owner at 15.

his 125th birthday at his small Hattiesburg home in May while recuperating from a bout with pneumonia.

Magee says he obtained his freedom after the fall of Vicksburg and serving with Union troops. He suffered two battle wounds.

Expert's Essay: Lay Off Marijuana

VANCOUVER (CP) — A 20-year-old student, ordered by the court to write a 5,000-word essay on his experiences with marijuana, has pleaded with young people not to use the narcotic.

Richard McKinnon of Toronto said he started on marijuana after reading the drug was not a heinous destroyer of a healthy mind.

This aroused his curiosity. Now he has learned his lesson.

Magistrate Les Bewley ordered the essay Nov. 23 as a condition of a two-year suspended sentence after McKinnon pleaded guilty to trafficking in marijuana.

The magistrate said he hoped the exercise would deter other young people from experimenting with the drug. McKinnon was asked to detail what led him to marijuana, what he learned during his 24 days in Oakalla awaiting trial and what advice he had.

McKinnon said in his essay he became aware of marijuana a year ago.

"I was astounded to see before me, in print, details of the drug's addictive nature. In fact, I felt the drug, if what was written was true, had suffered a great injustice to its name."

"I read in daily, weekly, monthly and bi-monthly publications, in reference texts and in seemingly authoritative books, all presumably authored by knowing men and women."

"I was led to believe that, taken in lesser quantities, it was a superlative sedative; taken in greater quantities, a mildly psychedelic influence."

McKinnon said his first experience with marijuana came at a friend's home in Toronto. He had no further contact with it until he came under personal and academic pressure at Vancouver Junior College last summer.

A student friend told him about the sedative powers of marijuana.

The Toronto student told of pondering his past and a future he could not foresee while lying on an infested mattress in a dirty jail cell.

He also told of meeting a heroin addict and trafficker whose girl friend resorted to prostitution to pay for their habits.

"He was saying I would learn," McKinnon wrote. "I'd bloody well learn to be like him, as if it was a great privilege to be a depraved junkie."

McKinnon, now back in Toronto, summed up:

"I had a lawyer who realized that to live with myself in the future I had to be honest now, a probation officer who understood in part what I went through and believed me, loving parents willing to sacrifice anything to help me the honorable way, and a magistrate with enough feeling for people to give me a chance to repay."

Zambia Lashes U.K. Bid

tally unworkable and ineffective arrangements."

Any embargo excluding Rhodesia's oil imports is worthless, Kapwepwe said.

Brown had made it clear in introducing the motion Thursday night that Britain has no intention of pursuing a sanctions program to the point where it could harm South African trade upon which the British economy depends to a considerable degree.

Any action to restrict Rhodesian imports could involve measures against South Africa, landlocked Rhodesia's biggest neighbor.

The British motion calls for compulsory sanctions against Rhodesian exports of asbestos, chrome, copper, iron ore, pig iron, sugar, tobacco, meat and most products, hides, skins and leather. Brown argued that this would be sufficient to put Ian Smith's white-minority regime, which rules a country of 4,000,000 Negroes and 25,000 whites, in an intolerable economic condition.

He repeated Friday that Britain would accept "a suitably and acceptably framed" amendment to include oil if somebody wanted to propose one.

Zambia, Rhodesia's northern neighbor, believes a British "military presence or intervention" is the only sure way of halting the Smith regime, Kapwepwe said.

The Smith regime declared Rhodesia independent of Britain Nov. 11, 1965. The British government tried to reach an understanding with Smith that would pave the way to eventual legal independence on a basis of majority rule, but failure was recognized after a meeting between Smith and Prime Minister Wilson last weekend.

AIM OF PLOT

Kapwepwe said: "The aim of the Wilson plot is to bolster white supremacy in southern Africa and ultimately to expand the noxious doctrine of apartheid (separation of the races) and racism from the Cape to the Congo." Kapwepwe added that Zambia's economic development stands in jeopardy if Britain doesn't bring Rhodesia's unilateral declaration of independence to a speedy end. Most of landlocked Zambia's links with the outside world lie through Rhodesia.

The debate resumes Monday.

Rheumatic Fever Aftermath Often Worse Than Disease

By JOSEPH MOLNER, MD

Dear Dr. Molner: Please discuss rheumatic fever and whether there are any repercussions in later life. A person I know had it in her teens. My son who is in college is getting quite serious about her. —H.B.

The aftermath of rheumatic fever often is far worse than the disease itself, but this depends on how the case is treated, and whether further attacks occur. "St. Vitus' dance" occurs following some cases, but this usually subsides. The big danger is heart damage. This is the way the disease works: SOMETIMES OTHERS

It is the result of a strep infection, the same streptococcus germ which causes strep throat and sometimes other diseases.

Your Good Health

For some folks it is just a strep throat. But for others, the germ spreads through the body and becomes rheumatic fever.

People aren't all the same. Some are subject to rheumatic fever; others escape it even though exposed to the same germ.

The worst part of rheumatic fever is its attack on the heart. It may not seem dangerous at the time, but the heart valves, particularly the mitral valve, become inflamed. Then as the inflammation subsides, a scar tissue is left. This can interfere with the free action of the valves.

COMMON GERM

People who have had rheumatic fever may get it again if they encounter the germ, which is a common one. Each subsequent attack naturally means that damage to the heart valves will be intensified.

Obviously the thing to do is to avoid further attacks. This we are now able to do, by giving periodic doses of a long-lasting form of penicillin. The drug often is given at one-month intervals, and continued for a number of years. The result is that we are now preventing, or at least minimizing, heart damage which would have been extensive in years before we had this treatment.

THOROUGH EXAM

As to the young lady, obviously I cannot say whether she has any remaining damage, or how much. A thorough physical examination, with emphasis on her heart, would give the answer.

Since she knows she had rheumatic fever, and was treated for it, we can assume that she had protective penicillin afterward. Perhaps she still does. And I trust we can assume that she knows that in her case a sore throat is a danger sign that should send her to the doctor without delay.

Opposition Flails New Pension Bill

OTTAWA (CP) — Opposition MPs viewed the government supplementary pension bill with plume Friday and predicted it will confuse pensioners without helping them sufficiently.

As criticism of the bill, now at the second-reading stage in the Commons, sharpened, so did exchanges involving Health Minister MacEachen.

The bill provides a guarantee of $105 a month to pensioners—a $30-increase above the basic $75 now paid all recipients of old age security payments.

ONE FOR TWO

The supplementary payment is tied to a recipient's income so that for every $2 above the basic $75, a pensioner's claim on the supplementary grant is reduced by $1.

Main target of opposition criticism is this income-related feature which many call a means test.

STUPID, DISHONEST

Mr. MacEachen has said that anyone claiming the proposal embodies a means test is either stupid or dishonest.

John Gilbert (NDP—Toronto Broadview) said the plan is so complex that the health department will have to send pensioners a form of at least 10 pages to explain the definition of income. He later amended this to a "20-page pamphlet."

He asked how pensioners making a little money baby-sitting or renting a room will calculate their income for purposes of the bill. How would they separate their overhead from their total income?

Lewis Brand (PC—Saskatoon) said the government insisted that all persons be covered in its medical care insurance plan yet limited those who would receive the supplementary pension.

MEANS TEST

No matter what Liberals said, the income test was a means test.

He said he was neither stupid nor dishonest, but was convinced that "the MacEachen test" is a means test.

George Chatterton (PC—Esquimalt-Saanich) said the government's claim that 500,000 Canadians would get the full pension supplement is true but misleading.

EQUAL AMOUNT

Most who qualified under the new legislation would lose an equal amount they now receive through provincial payments.

They would wind up with the same amount although a larger slice would come from the federal government.

If the government had no guarantee that the provinces would raise the ceilings on welfare plans then "the greatest beneficiaries under this plan are the provinces."

Red Chinese Unions— Owe Million

SOFIA, Bulgaria (CP)—The trade unions of People's China are in arrears for a total of $142,850 to the Communist World Federation of Trade Unions. It was announced at the federation's general council session Friday.

Chinese delegates were expelled from the council session Thursday following a bitter two-day wrangle between them and the pro-Soviet majority in the council. The Chinese unions remained members of the federation.

Romney Men Win Big Governor Jobs

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo. (AP) — Michigan's Governor George Romney stopped barely short of a presidential candidacy Friday night as two of his potential supporters won top leadership posts in the enlarged Republican Governors' Conference.

Romney's announcement at a news conference he expects to go to Viet Nam to backgroud his belief that President Johnson is politically vulnerable because "I don't think we are doing as good a job as we could be doing there," keynoted a spectacular advance toward an announcement for the party's 1968 presidential nomination.

The governors, governors-elect and retiring state executives chose Governor John A. Love of Colorado as their new chairman and Governor John H. Chafee of Rhode Island as vice-chairman.

Love said the understanding is that Chafee will succeed him in the chairmanship within a year.

ROMNEY MAN

Both are supporters of Romney.

Their election cemented progressive, or moderate, control of what in January will become a 25-member association spilling for action in the 1968 presidential campaign.

While Romney said, as he had before, that he has not made the decision to run for president, not many were left in doubt that when he thinks the proper time has come he will be running for the 1968 nomination.

HIS BELIEF

As evidence he believes a Republican can defeat Johnson's expected bid for a second electoral term, Romney said it remains to be seen whether Johnson can extract the United States honorably from the Viet Nam commitment before November, 1968, or whether "it will take a Republican president to do it."

Hansard Version Censored

Indelicate Suggestion Spices Commons Housing Question

OTTAWA (CP) — The Commons rocked with laughter Friday when one New Democrat MP suggested this phrasing for a question a colleague was trying to ask the government on housing:

"When the hell are they going to get off their asses?" Colin Cameron (NDP-Nanaimo-Cowichan-The Islands) made the suggestion while Reid Scott (NDP-Toronto-Danforth) was seeking information, and supplying plenty on housing.

Mr. Cameron's suggestion was picked up clearly by the microphone on Mr. Scott's desk and brought a roar of laughter.

Mr. Scott immediately pointed out to Hansard reporters, transcribing the proceedings, that the remark should be attributed to Mr. Cameron. Hansard, the Commons record, later came out with this discreet version:

"Ask them if they will get off their rear ends."

The suggestion came after Speaker Lucien Lamoureux had called Mr. Scott to order several times for providing a wealth of statistics and comments before getting to the gist of his question.

Mr. Scott started by referring to the "deepening housing shortage" and saying prices had climbed 25 per cent and rents 12 per cent in recent months.

Mr. Lamoureux said he should be seeking information, not giving it.

Mr. Scott said he was getting to the point but Labor Minister Nicholson, who reports to the Commons on housing, "seems to have a set of blinkers on in regard to housing prices."

Again Mr. Lamoureux called him to order.

Mr. Scott assured the Speaker he was getting to his question but there was "an 'om' concern" about the shortage on the government benches.

He was called to order again and before he could ask his question Mr. Cameron interposed his suggestion.

After the laughter subsided, Mr. Scott asked Mr. Nicholson whether the government would announce a policy to meet the shortage.

Mr. Lamoureux ruled this out of order, saying it was not a question but "a representation."

Britain Hesitates On Troop Pull-Out

LONDON (Reuters) — Britain was expected to make an announcement Monday temporarily postponing a decision on the withdrawal of any military forces from West Germany, informed sources said Friday night.

Britain told West Germany earlier that if it does not relieve Britain of the full foreign exchange costs of keeping the 59,000 British forces in Germany, some would be withdrawn.

The British originally planned to make a decision before the end of the current budgetary year on March 31. The sources could not say how long the decision would be postponed.

A postponement would give more time for the current talks on the foreign exchange costs problem between top representatives of Britain, the United States and West Germany.

The foreign exchange costs of the Army of the Rhine now is about £49,000,000 ($32,000,000) annually. The last West German offer of an offset contribution was £31,500,000 ($24,500,000) a year.

The 8,922-ton ship was known to have been carrying 206 passengers and 76 crew members.

But the total might be higher. The naval school at Capotaormina, where the scheduled 10-hour crossing started Wednesday night, said it would take days to determine whether any of its cadets had been on the Heraklion as unlisted passengers.

The school began its Christmas season leave period the day the ship sailed.

At least one naval cadet was among the survivors and he said he saw a classmate drown when a wave swept over a ship's door they were clinging to.

In hospital, cadet Jordan Zigiadis said he awakened to find the ship dark and listing sharply, grabbed a lifebelt from a rack and ran on deck.

"Screams mixed with the roar of the waves," he said. "I could barely stand up. The ship listed so severely by then that I had to crawl upward across the deck. I fastened the lifebelt around me and dropped over

Docks Alive Again; Malady Lingers On

VANCOUVER (CP) — The British Columbia waterfront is again alive with activity after a three-week work disruption, but it is suffering a shutdown hangover.

Itneves pulled long trains of cargo on and off docks and hydraulic winches whined as cargo was hoisted ashore from ships stalled by the dispute between dock foremen and employers.

But the work force and the port of Vancouver could not cope with the demands from 80 ships tied up along the coast during the shutdown, settled temporarily Thursday night.

ONLY HALF

In Vancouver, where 45 ships were affected, stevedoring companies ordered 102 longshoremen. The International Longshoremen's and Warehousemen's Union could supply only 68.

The union said part of the problem was that some longshoremen had decided to take holidays during the tie-up and had not yet returned.

BERTH DEARTH

Compounding the problem was a lack of berths for the backlog of deep-sea ships.

In grain handling alone, there were 10 berths available for the 26 ships in port waiting to take on export cargo.

Capt. B. D. L. Johnson, port manager, estimated it would be six weeks before work returned to a normal pace.

JUST TEMPORARY

A statement from the employers Friday said the settlement of the strike announced in Ottawa Thursday night was only temporary. The statement said the foremen were in the same position Friday as they were when they struck for bargaining rights Nov. 17.

The foremen, who set up Local 514 of the ILWU, wanted to be recognized as a unit for grievance and bargaining procedures. Later they said they only wanted grievance procedure and the right to form an association, either within or without the ILWU.

ON THEIR OWN

The employers' statement provided "for a temporary grievance procedure for those foremen who wish to avail themselves of it with their employers. It is strictly on an individual employee - employer basis."

It said employers continue to refuse to collectively bargain "with any union or association respecting their management or supervisory staff."

NOT CHANGED

"The settlement does not change this position... and does not establish or contemplate any collective bargaining relationship between employing companies and their foremen." The dispute was estimated to cost longshoremen $200,000 a day in lost wages and shippers $210,000 a day for their tied up vessels. In addition, about 2,000 woods workers were laid off in Vancouver, Prince Rupert and on Vancouver Island.

LOADED CARS

The expected six-week cargo loss involves 1,044 loaded grain boxcars on the West Coast and 2,585 more on Canadian Pacific Railway sidings in other parts of B.C. and Alberta.

Canadian National Railway said it had about 800 grain boxcars in Vancouver and about 7,000 more strung through the two provinces.

Lumber shipments and other export cargo also was backed up, but figures were not immediately available on the volume.

Link with Royalty Blocks Payment For Quebec Medals

QUEBEC (CP) — The Quebec cabinet has decided to block credits to pay for medals bearing the effigy of the Quebec lieutenant-governor each year to top students in the province, it was learned Friday.

Reliable sources said the decision is indicative of an intention by the government to abolish eventually the position of Queen's representative and replace this dignity with a president.

The sources said the office of the lieutenant-governor had asked for government money to cover cost of new medals but that the cabinet blocked provision of the necessary credits.

Abolition of the post of lieutenant-governor, who now signs all legislative bills, was promised repeatedly made by Premier Daniel Johnson during the campaign preceding the June 5 provincial election.

The sources said the cabinet has decided to replace the lieutenant-governor's medals with medals given by the "state of Quebec."

Credits asked by the present lieutenant-governor, Hugues Lapierre, for the medals were for $5,000. In previous years, an average of 65 gold, 125 silver and 200 bronze medals have been given out annually.

The cabinet decided some time ago the royal crown no longer would appear on government stationery.

Births the Key For Quebec

QUEBEC (CP) — French Canada survives today as a nation because of the high birth rate. Quebec has maintained until recent years, says Abbe Gerard Dion of Laval University.

Abbe Dion, professor of industrial relations at Laval, says in the current issue of Perspectives Sociales—a review published under his direction—that he is worried about the future when he considers Quebec's declining birth rate, which now has dropped below Canada's national average.

"Whatever people say, numbers have a decisive importance in the survival and development of an ethnic group. Numbers alone are not enough, but without them you can do nothing. Right or wrong, and whether we like it or not, it is because of this high birth rate that we exist today—perhaps as individuals and without any doubt as a nation."

The Laval professor said he does not oppose birth control, but feels the government should make certain that parents have sufficient economic means to rear children, and to feed and educate them.

Conservatives

Policy Tackled By MPs Today

OTTAWA (CP) — Conservative MPs will try to set aside their differences over party leadership this weekend in working sessions to write party policy.

The aim is to draft a coherent statement of Conservative policy around which the party can rally until it is endorsed by the general membership.

Enfranchisement may take some time, since the next major national meeting of the party is to be a leadership convention in 1967.

RELATED BATTLE

Policy was pushed into the background at last month's annual meeting of the Progressive Conservative Association of Canada when most of the time was taken up with the leadership question and a related battle over the party presidency.

Dalton Camp of Toronto was re-elected president after campaigning for a leadership reassessment.

With a majority of the party's MPs holding different views from the general membership over whether John Diefenbaker should continue to lead, the idea was conceived to work out policies on which both groups could agree.

URBAN AFFAIRS

At closed meetings, Conservative MPs and senators will try to reach a consensus on urban affairs, health, immigration, labor, trade, agriculture and tax and financial policies.

After that, it's a question of informing the party's policy committee, the national executive, the general membership and the voting public. The policies probably will be in force until the membership next gets a chance to pronounce on them at a national meeting.

Mrs. Farber talks to newsmen

'Love Slave' Helped Kill Husband After Two Starts

FREEHOLD, N.J. (AP) — Marjorie Farber, between fits of weeping, testified Friday that, after two false starts, she helped Dr. Carl Coppolino in the 1963 smothering and strangling of her husband. She said she was hypnotized.

Mrs. Farber, 52 still an attractive five-foot-two brunette, said she was a slave in a bizarre love plan conceived by Coppolino. She said she had tried herself at his direction to kill her husband, retired army Col. William E. Farber, but couldn't go through with it.

POWERS BLAMED

"I was another person," she said, blaming all her actions on a trance she said was induced by Coppolino's hypnotic powers. "This terrible complex — me and that other person dominated by Carl," she testified at one point. "I was brainwashed by this man. He had a vicious hatred for my husband. I didn't."

However, defence lawyer F. Lee Bailey produced a letter signed by Mrs. Farber shortly before her husband's July, 1963, death. In it was a mention that Coppolino diagnosed her husband as in the throes of a heart attack and that Farber had refused to be taken to hospital.

NO LONGER

The letter released Coppolino from further responsibility in Farber's treatment and left the implication that the defendant was no longer on the scene when Farber died.

Judge Elvin R. Simmill warned Mrs. Farber that her testimony incriminated her in the slaying. But she said she was offering it voluntarily, without any promise that she would be immune from prosecution as an accomplice.

The trial resumes Monday. Mrs. Farber said of the slaying:

"I walked into the bedroom and Carl had apparently finished giving Bill an injection. He said, 'He is a hard one to kill. He's taking a long time to die.' Then he pulled a pillow out from under Bill's head and put it over him and leaned down with all his weight."

An autopsy report listed Farber's death as due to strangulation so severe that two cartilages in his neck were broken. LOOKED AT HIM

"I just stood there and looked at him," Mrs. Farber added. Dr. Coppolino, 34-year-old anaesthesiologist and hypnotist, is on trial for first-degree murder. In his opening statement, defence counsel F. Lee Bailey anticipated Mrs. Farber's story and told the jury:

"It's a monumental and shameful demonstration that Hell hath no fury like a woman scorned. . . . She would sit in his lap in the electric chair just to see that he dies."

The witness, on cross-examination, conceded that she was having an affair with Dr. Coppolino at the time of the slaying.

25 Pupils Saved By Alert Teacher

SOUTH BEND, Ind. (AP) — she heard an overhead noise. Twenty-five school children looked up and saw the ceiling buckling. At the same time, a fire alarm sounded and she slipped, covering her class-room with a ton of debris. Just as the last child left the room, Claude Black, Grade 3 teacher at Linden school, said, way.

Garibaldi

Skiers' Lease Won

Plans for development of a $10,000,000 sportsmen's weekend paradise town near Whistler Mountain in Garibaldi Park were approved by the provincial cabinet Friday.

Alpine Meadows Development Ltd., a Vancouver land development firm, was granted a 21-year lease to develop 893 acres of unsurveyed land at Green Lake, in the Squamish-Pemberton area.

The site is near Whistler Mountain, which is currently being developed as a skiing centre.

COMPANY PLANS

The company will build roads and install water and sewer systems in a townsite, where lots will be sold to people who want to build cabins and commute to the weekend recreational area.

Terms of the lease approved by cabinet call for the company to pay an annual rental of $6,698 for the first five years. The rental will be subject to revision during each succeeding five-year period.

But as the land is developed for sale, Alpine Meadows will be allowed to purchase the land from the government at the price of $150 per acre.

Nature-Lovers On Field Trip

The intermediate section of the junior branch of the Victoria Natural History Society will meet at 1:30 p.m. today at Douglas and Hillside for a survey field trip to Mt. Douglas.

VIP Airport Lounge

Status Seekers
Lose Sanctuary

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The airline VIP lounge, a longtime sanctuary for salesmen, status seekers and special customers, could be on its way toward becoming just another waiting room.

The U.S. Civil Aeronautics Board said Thursday that Northwest Airlines has agreed to open the doors of its "top flight club" lounges to all first class ticket holders. The rest of the U.S. airlines may follow suit.

Northwest was one of nine trunklines accused of discrimination in a complaint filed by the C.A.B. last July. The top flight club has about 6,500 members. Most of the airlines operate the exclusive clubs under tight membership rules. The idea of the Northwest club, the C.A.B. said, was a way for the airline to give "recognition to persons who have, in its view, served the interest of aviation in general or the interests of the airline in particular."

The membership rules for the airline clubs vary all the way from a minimum amount of miles flown, to a man's rank in the business world.

In its report on the Northwest complaint, the C.A.B. said that the system used by the airline for entry into the lounges was "unjust discrimination against passengers who have paid the same fare as club members."

Australia's koala bears live on leaves from eucalyptus tree—this one has leaf in his mouth—and are among most popular photographic subjects.

Sports, Animals, Scenery Make-

For Photographers

SYDNEY, Australia — Don't ever challenge an Australian to a beer drinking contest. Chances are you'll lose. Australians are fiercely proud of their home brew, and back up their pride by drinking prodigious amounts of the golden liquid. Per capita, Australians are the greatest beer drinkers in the world.

However, the beer certainly doesn't slow Australians down. They seem to thrive on it, because Australians are among the most active and athletic people in the world.

GREAT SPORTS

With a population of only 11,500,000, Australia invariably produces some of the world's greatest swimmers, track and field stars and tennis players. The Davis Cup, symbolic of world amateur tennis supremacy, is almost the private property of Australia.

Other popular Australian sports include golf, sailing, horseback riding, horse racing, football and cricket.

UNIQUE SUBJECTS

For professional and amateur photographers, among tourists, the animals which are native to Australia present unique photo subjects. Koala bears, which feed on eucalyptus leaves, the kangaroo, wallaby, platypus, antelope, and giant turtle are all indigenous to Australia. At the Zoological Gardens, near Sydney, there is an excellent array of these animals shown in surroundings resembling their native haunts.

CFA FLIGHTS

The two largest cities in Australia are Sydney and Melbourne, Canadian Pacific Airlines has regularly scheduled flights to Sydney from Vancouver.

Sydney is surrounded by beach resorts which stretch hundreds of miles in each direction. Although it is a city of tall buildings, Sydney has a number of parks, including Hyde Park, which is almost in the centre of the city.

Sydney is also a large shipping centre, with one of the busiest ports in the world. Frequent harbor ferry excursions are an excellent way to see the city.

BLUE MOUNTAINS

The Blue Mountains range about 3,500 feet above sea level, and provide magnificent scenery. Just a two-hour drive from Sydney, the Blue Mountains have a number of hotels for tourists.

There are also two national parks just a short distance from Sydney. Both are sanctuaries for animal and bird life and each features indigenous flora. Other Australian points of interest include Melbourne, with numerous gardens and parks; Canberra, the federal capital of Australia; Brisbane, the capital of Queensland; Adelaide, the capital of South Australia; Tasmania, a heart-shaped island south of Melbourne, smallest of the six Australian states; and Perth, a capital of Western Australia.

BARRIER REEF

A special point of interest for photographers is the Great Barrier Reef, stretching for about 1,200 miles along the Queensland coast. The visitor can get there from Sydney by plane in about three hours, or take one of a number of cruises. This coral reef contains hundreds of small islands and coves which are almost completely unspoiled.

Out of Court

VANCOUVER (CP) — The board of trade has settled out of court the claim of Leslie Feldstein, 44, for $2.20 plus costs, Feldstein's claim, to have been heard in Small Debts Court, was for $2 for a board of trade luncheon he did not eat Sept. 26 because it was served cold and 20 cents for the failure to serve coffee during a symposium Oct. 14.

Police Alter
Death Verdict

PETERBOROUGH, Ont. (CP) — Provincial police said Larry Reynolds, 26, of Hastings had been shot rather than killed in an auto accident. Reynolds' body was found in the wreckage of a car he was driving which had left a country road and overturned.

TEGUICIGALPA, Honduras — The famed "Tay-goose." Central American adventurers. Banana soldiers-of-fortune. It's a Spanish colonial city, almost unchanged by time. Warm days and cool nights — about 85 degrees average now. Military bugles blow open each fine day, and you step back 100 years into ox cart economy.

The Gran Hotel Lincoln is your place — not so Gran but adequate. Maya ruins all over the place. If you're looking for the unspoiled country, this is it.

"We have not been able to find much reading material on Central America but are very much interested..."

The Pan American Union has the best information on these countries. Pan American Airways is good, too. They fly a daily plane through the five capitals. Best towns to me: Guatemala City (but spend some time in Antigua nearby); Tegucigalpa; and San Jose in Costa Rica.

You can drive all of this on the Pan American Highway, leaving it to go up to Tay-goose. Full of stories — O. Henry laid over here. A blowup from his story The Lost Blend is on the back bar of the Lincoln.

Cortez came down this way and, on an angry day, hanged his hostage, the last Aztec emperor. The filibustering William Walker — "the grey-eyed man of destiny" — was a brief President of Nicaragua. The Hondurans stood him against a wall at Tegucigalpa and shot him.

You need a smallpox vaccination certificate — dated within the past year. Also advised: tetanus, typhoid and yellow fever shots for all these countries. And there's some malaria. Ask your doctor for preventive pills.

"We planned to drive on a side trip from Mexico City to Vera Cruz..."

Drive down on the new road through Orizaba — Ford de las Flores with the gardens. A full swimming pool is a pretty, tropical spot overnight. Return to Mexico City on the road through Jalapa.

In Vera Cruz, I stayed at the Hotel Emporio — not great, not bad. There's a very pretty plaza. At night the lights float in it like little golden moons. Sea food is excellent. Get the stuffed crab with dark Orizaba beer. Best place used to be Prender, outdoors under the arches on the corner.

"Would you recommend a holiday grog?"

On the little German trains that rush through snowy, Christmas card villages, they serve grog mit der Jamaica rum at this time of year: An ounce of rum with four ounces of boiling water. Twist a large piece of fresh lemon peel into it and top with a sprinkling of cinnamon.

"My husband must stay on a salt-free diet. Is this possible on an air trip?" Most airlines say they are equipped for ANY diet if you tell them in advance. However, I'd pick a BIG airline. They probably get more off-beat diet calls.

"Can you advise us on tipping in Tokyo?" Tip the airport porter 100 yen for each bag. And then forget it. Japan is a no tip country. No tips to bellboys, waiters, doormen, hatched girls or taxi drivers. I don't say they won't take it. But it isn't expected.

"Will we have trouble driving in Mexico?"

None on main highways. Side roads may jolt your bolts loose. And buy the new P-100 or Gasolmex gasoline. The plain Mexolina pings like a banjo. Often keeps on firing after you shut off the ignition key. I blew a cylinder head with this stuff once and spent three days in Tepic waiting for parts. A nice town, but it's no Paris.

"We've been thinking of Tahiti..."

A wonderful South Seas island. But think about it later. Around March. Now is the season when it rains and rains. A week of it and you could have wrung me out like a sponge. All my envelopes sealed automatically. And my shoes grew green moss.

PARIS (AP)—Twelve thousand parking places will be opened on sidewalks and underground lots will be built to relieve the French capital's staggering traffic jams. It is estimated there are 1,700,000 cars registered in Greater Paris but only "room" for 250,000 vehicles to circulate at the same time.

Gilbey's bring ocean-going

On board the world's crack liners expert bartenders know that one of the best gins for mixed drinks is Gilbey's London Dry. Its perfect balance gives a fresh, clean tasting drink. This fact is proven by the Canberra Tom Collins—the biggest bloomin' Collins sailing the seven seas!

Canberra—Tom Collins

There are two secrets to the Canberra Tom Collins. The first is of course Gilbey's London Dry Gin. By starting with Gilbey's you are certain of finishing with a fresh, clean tasting drink. You'll also need fresh lemon juice, sugar and soda water. The second secret (to make the biggest bloomin' Collins) is to use a 16 ounce glass!

Michelangelo—Sundowners

Italian superliner Michelangelo has jet-age smoke stacks that keep smoke off the decks whatever the weather. We mention this since clean air helps people enjoy the fresh, clean taste of Gilbey's London Dry Gin. With grapefruit juice and sugar Gilbey's becomes a Sundowner you'll enjoy at any time of the day.

You can rely on Gilbey's London Dry, a perfectly balanced gin that gives you a fresh, clean tasting drink. This gin is an international favourite, sold in 92 countries. It's been made by the Gilbey family for 109 years.

Canadian Pipeline First for Sulphur

Business Editor

The world's first pipeline for the express purpose of moving sulphur is in the planning stage by Shell of Canada.

It will be laid from the Calgary area, through southern Alberta and via the Crow's Nest Pass, to tidewater near Vancouver, according to a report by Oil and Gas Journal of Tulsa, Okla.

The pipeline, estimated at $50,000,000, will be of 12-inch diameter and will have feeder lines to various sour gas processing plants in Alberta.

Shell, Alberta's largest sulphur producer, is spearheading the proposal and is spending $1,000,000 on research.

SLURRY FORM

J. E. Mims, Shell's pipeline manager in Canada, says the sulphur will be piped to the coast in slurry form, with the sulphur mixed with either water or oil.

It hopes other sulphur producers in Alberta will collaborate in the effort which is aimed at moving 1,500,000 tons of sulphur a year — about Alberta's total output this year.

Other oil companies with sulphur interests in Alberta are Amerasia, B.A. Oil, Canadian Fins, Chevron Standard, Home

LOSSES LOOK HEAVY

The unsecured note holders of the bankrupt Prudential Finance Co. of Toronto are not likely to get much more than 15 per cent of their money back, according to the latest probe into the company's position.

Most of the notes are held by small investors, more than 5,000 in number.

The position is said to be much worse than was originally estimated, when there appeared to be a deficit of about $3,500,000 on the company's liabilities of about $24,000,000.

HOLIDAYS ANNOUNCED

Canadian stock markets will close at noon Eastern Standard Time Friday, Dec. 23, and will remain closed until the Tuesday, Dec. 27 session. The exchanges will also close Monday Jan. 2.

EMBARGO LIFTED

The Canadian Pacific Railway has raised its embargo on the shipment of Prairie grain to west coast ports.

The ban was imposed Nov. 29 as a result of the longshore strike in B.C. ports.

STORE FIRM FOLDS

A women's wear and specialty shop firm with 23 stores in Toronto and southern Ontario has passed into receivers' hands.

Virginia Dare Ltd. which made a loss of $54,063 in the year ended Jan. 31, 1966, is reported to be insolvent.

STOCK DELISTED

The share of Peace River Petroleum Ltd. has been delisted by the Vancouver Stock Exchange for failing to comply with listing regulations.

SALE APPROVED

The Federal Board of Transport Commissioners and the B.C. Public Utilities Commission have approved the sale of Okanagan Telephone to B.C. Telephone.

J. E. Richardson, president of B.C. Telephone, says the cheques to Okanagan shareholders, valued at $27.50 a share, will be sent by registered mail in the next 10 days.

NAME CHOSEN

Richardson Securities of Canada is the new name chosen by James Richardson and Sons Ltd. as the title of its securities division.

BLACK MARKET

He blamed a slackening home market and a seasonal drop in sales, but could give no details of the extent of the production cuts.

So far the company has been able to relieve the effects of reduced sales on the home market through increased exports. Recently 60 per cent of the popular beetle-shaped cars produced in West Germany have been sold abroad.

Since October, 800 workers have left Volkswagen monthly, with 600 not being replaced. The company has 290,000 on its payroll.

Gas Line Gets Green Light

By JACK FRY
Legislative Reporter

Pacific Northern Gas Ltd. was given cabinet approval Friday to build a $26,000,000 natural gas pipeline to serve an industrial complex and more than a dozen communities between Prince George and Prince Rupert.

Plans call for a pipeline to the coast from Summit Lake, 32 miles north of Prince George, and construction of distribution systems in Prince Rupert, Kitimat, Terrace, Smithers, Houston, Burns Lake, Vanderhoof, Fraser Lake, Fort Nelson, Telkwa, Endako, Topley and Decker Lake.

DEPOSIT ORDERED

Pacific Northern, a partnership formed by Great Northern Gas Utilities Ltd. and Westcoast Transmission Co., must post within 45 days a $200,000 deposit in cash or bonds, which would be forfeited to the province if the system is not completed by Sept. 1, 1968.

Feasibility studies have shown that, so far as two of Pacific Northern's largest potential industrial customers are concerned, Celgar and Skeena Kraft on Watson Island near Prince Rupert, the project would have to be completed by June 30, 1968.

The cabinet approved a certificate of public convenience and necessity which was issued to Pacific Northern Dec. 5 by the Public Utilities Commission.

The PUC issued the certificate on the understanding that the $26,000,000 venture be financed from sale of $4,000,000 worth of common shares to Great Northern Gas and Westcoast Transmission, $3,500,000 through public subscription and the remaining $18,500,000 through debt financing in the form of bank loans, first mortgage bonds and debentures.

SEVERAL NEEDS

The PUC also made the certificate's validity contingent upon a number of requirements which will have to receive its approval.

The certificate will remain inoperative so far as operation of the system is concerned until its financial arrangements are approved by the PUC.

It will become void on Oct. 31, 1967 if Pacific Northern has not shown by that date that it has raised at least $7,500,000 through issuance of common stock, including not less than $4,000,000 from the two companies in the partnership.

First Canadian book of its kind Plants from Sea to Sea

F. H. Montgomery

Practical, authoritative guide to Canadian plants.

Here, for the first time in a single volume, are the answers for those who want more than just a casual acquaintance with the fascinating world of Canadian plant life. Prepared for both the naturalist and amateur, PLANTS FROM SEA TO SEA is presented in a language intelligible to the layman, yet scientifically accurate. Described in this lavish 450-page guide are more than 1,500 species of Canadian flora including Horsetails, Clubmosses, Ferns, Gymnosperms and trees, shrubs and herbs belonging to the flowering plants. Of these, more than 870 are expertly illustrated in beautiful full colour plates and black-and-white line drawings.

Westwood Funeral Here Today

Funeral services will be held at 2 p.m. today in Hayward's Chapel for A. Norman Westwood, 65, of 3311 Parker, who died in Royal Jubilee Hospital Wednesday.

Mr. Westwood was vice-president and former superintendent of Gray Line Tours in Victoria. He also served in Nanaimo as district manager for Vancouver Island Coach Lines.

MANY FRIENDS

"Mr. Westwood had a host of friends from one end of the coast to the other," a spokesman for Gray Lines said. "He promoted the tourist business all over North America."

A lieutenant-commander during the Second World War, Mr. Westwood was in charge of the Royal Canadian Navy's motor transport division on the Pacific coast.

He returned to Gray Line Tours in Victoria when the war was over and, after several years as superintendent, was appointed vice-president in 1952.

NANAIMO NATIVE

Born and raised in Nanaimo, Mr. Westwood was a cousin of Earle Westwood, B.C. agent-general in London and former B.C. recreation minister.

Mr. Westwood is survived by his widow, Dorothy, at home; a daughter, Mrs. Patricia Barclay and two grandchildren, Johnny and Kirsty, of Fort William, and a sister, Mrs. E. Jorrie de St. Jorre, of Victoria.

State Officials Die in Crash

CALCUTTA, India (AP) — Six senior officials of the Orissa state government were killed in a road accident near Cuttack, about 400 miles southwest of here. The officials were on their way to the opening of five river bridges, built with assistance from the International Development Association, when the accident occurred.

Nicklaus, Palmer Regain Lead In Pairs Tourney

PALM BEACH GARDENS, Fla. (AP) — Jack Nicklaus and Arnold Palmer finished the third round of the $275,000 PGA best-ball golf championship at dusk Friday, firing a 63 to regain the lead and move two strokes ahead of the field at 132.

The Palmer-Nicklaus marathon lasted five minutes short of six hours as play was slowed by high winds and 69 other teams competing for the $50,000 top money.

The slow play agitated Nicklaus and Palmer.

"For everyone's sake, golf has got to be speeded up," said Palmer.

"And there's only one remedy — they have got to start moving along faster. We waited at every shot."

Nicklaus and Palmer were only minutes from darkness when they finished and officials already were preparing to shift starting times for the final round to allow them to hole out in the morning.

Golf's most famous team had nine birdies in carding the identical score that gave it the first-round lead. After 54 holes, each has 13 birdies — and two over-par — in bringing the tournament to 24 under par.

The best round ever in team play on the master 6,863-yard east course belonged to the Capt. Jacky made 10 alone and the team hit eight in a row to drop the record by one stroke.

On his own ball, Jacky carded an official 63 and cut four strokes off the individual course record. He called it "the best round I have ever played."

"The wind was very much a factor. The course was three times harder in the wind. It was a matter of putting."

The Toronto team of George Knudson and Al Balding added a 68 to their 63-67 for 204 total.

There was no immediate word on how Will Homenuik of Winnipeg and his partner fared.

Totems Vie for Hoop Title

Vic High Chosen for Trip

Many Victoria athletes have been eyeing a trip to Quebec for the First Winter Games but George Andrews' Victoria High Totems are happy to make Regina their Centennial stop.

Totems, the defending provincial basketball champions, have been chosen to represent B.C. in the Canadian Centennial high school basketball tournament in Regina, January 28 and 29.

Luther College will play host to the tournament as their special project for 1967. For approximately fifteen years the college has sponsored a prairie school tournament.

This year the Regina Institute applied to the Centennial Committee to expand the tournament to a national level and eight teams from B.C. to Quebec will participate in the single knockout event.

An invitation was sent to the B.C. High School Boys Basketball Association and the body decided to send the Totems as their representative.

Under Bill Garner's direction last year, the Totems upset Oak Bay in the high school final at UBC.

With former coach Andrews back at the helm this year the club has five holdovers.

Back in the pivot position is provincial all-star Otis

Moskian who has added an inch of height since last season and now stands at six feet, four and one-half inches.

Also back are starting guard Roger Halford, Dexter Mason, Greg Schroeder and Len Rouché.

Andrews has added Bill Clarke and Joe Teler, both of whom saw some action with the senior team last year and rookies Barry Moen, Paul Lee, Pat Skilling, Eric Earle and Dave Creed.

Although shorter and so far not as sharp as last year's edition, Andrews feels that the club will leave Victoria by air on the Thursday at 7 a.m., play one game on Friday and two on Saturday before flying home on Sunday.

Added incentive is present for the Totems to repeat as provincial champions this spring. A trip to Alaska to play the Alaskan champions is currently on the drawing boards.

Totems will give a good account of themselves in the tournament.

Leafs Ready to End Losing Streak Tonight

Victoria Maple Leafs will have no new talent at Memorial Arena tonight as they set about trying to end an eight-game losing streak at the expense of the improved Seattle Totems but a week of stiff workouts and a new determination may be enough.

It won't take too much of an improvement. While the Leafs' troubles really started when defenceman Fred Huot joined centre Larry Keenan on the injured list they needed just a hit more in five of the games in their backward slide to have won or at least gained a tie.

It was a combination of a lot of little things which kept the streak going. It was one pass too many or one too few, some bad shooting and some bad positional play, a missed check or a soft goal against and quite often, some bad luck.

And, perhaps as much as anything, the Leafs, who last season were at their best when they were the most aggressive, have allowed themselves to be pushed around a bit too much.

The Leafs may not be championship contenders until Huot and Keenan get back into the lineup but only a little extra effort is needed to project them back into the playoff picture.

Golfers the Healthiest Walking Is the Secret

By THOMAS A. REEDY
LONDON (AP) — The brain boys turned the spotlight on the muscle boys and came out today with the conclusion that golfers are healthier than any body.

The experiment was conducted by university professors and scientists among cricket players, golfers, Olympic carmen and about 140 ordinary students.

Dat Rees, 53-year-old professional British senior champion and former captain of the British Ryder Cup team which beat the Americans in 1957 and has been unable to repeat it ever since.

Neil Coles, 32-year-old professional, leading money winner on the British circuit and a perennial threat in every major tournament.

CRICKETERS WORST
Oarsmen came second in the tests, third were the students and the cricketers placed last.

Dr. John Jeffreys, head of the Physical Education Department at Leicester University, commented on the results of the tests:

"We were surprised that golfers were fitter because they were older, mostly around 35. But it seems that walking is the secret."

CYCLING MACHINE
The tests were given on a bicycle machine, pedalled at various speeds with instruments recording pulse rates, blood pressure, oxygen intake, breathing rates and general efficiency.

SPORT GROWING
Speed skating is increasing in Southern B.C. and Vancouver Island and representatives will be chosen for a B.C. team to enter the Winter Games in Quebec City.

Further information can be obtained from Mrs. Gray at 386-3261.

Speed Skating At Esquimalt

A new sport on the local sports scene is speed skating following the formation of a club at the Esquimalt Sports Centre.

The idea came from a clinic in September sponsored by the Community Programs Branch of the Physical Fitness Department under the sanction of the Canadian Amateur Speed Skating Association.

Mr. James Shields, an experienced coach and competitive speed skater from Saskatoon, has been elected president and under his direction the club will work out at the Sports Centre next Monday and Thursday from 6 to 7 a.m.

Other club officers are Mrs. Ann Twamley, vice-president; Mrs. Shirley Gray, secretary-treasurer; and John McQuillin, Miss Robin Twamley and George Spears, directors.

The club is open to all persons between six and 60 with an entrance fee of 50c and a charge of 50c per session.

American League Sets 66 Records

BOSTON (CP) — The American League, still celebrating 'Baltimore Orioles' four-game sweep of Los Angeles Dodgers in the world series, has reported a record year in 1966.

President Joe Cronin said today 66 major league and American League baseball records were broken or tied last season.

The breakdown showed 20 major league records bettered and 22 tied and nine league marks erased and 15 tied.

TOP SLUGGER
Cronin also formally proclaimed Frank Robinson of Baltimore the league slugging champion with a mark of .637, highest since Mickey Mantle of New York won with .607 in 1961.

Robinson, who won the triple crown with a batting average of .316, 49 homers and 122 runs batted in, easily captured the slugging crown. Harmon Killebrew of Minnesota was runner-up with .538.

Hoyt Wilhelm, Chicago White Sox relief specialist, broke five of his major league records. They included most errorless games, 22; most games as a reliever, 74; most victories in relief, 99; most games finished in relief, 485; and most innings pitched in relief, 1,428.

Mantle, hobbled much of the season by injuries, broke two major league records by hitting eight homers in six consecutive games and hitting his career strikeout total to 1,500 by fanning 78 times. Mantle also hit the major league mark by hitting seven homers in five straight games.

SIX TWIN KILLINGS
Bobby Knoop of California Angels set major league records by a second baseman in participating in six double plays in a game against Boston May 1 and by making 12 putouts against the Red Sox Aug. 30.

Hot Battle Shaping For Lead
Canadian Scottish will be trying for a share of first place, a spot they have held for most of the season, when they meet Tally-Ho, co-leaders with Kickers, today at Central Park at 2 p.m. in Victoria and District Soccer League first division play.

The balanced Scottish attack is led by Ron Stubbings, Franz Van Doesburg and Jack Breuker who have each scored three goals.

Tom Corbett with four and Charlie Emerson with three lead the motemen.

On Sunday Red Lions play Gorge at Heywood, Houriguns visit Navy and University Vikings play host to Victoria West.

Second division play on Sunday has first place Island Tug travelling to the skumping Sidney club, second place University Norsemen play windean Falcons at Central Park, London Boxers meets Wests at lower Topaz Park and Gorge and Colony Lions tangle at upper Topaz.

Teams Acting as Agents

REGINA (CP) — Teams in the state that in consideration of the fact that CMJHL clubs help developed their abilities, players are to appoint the clubs as their agents in negotiating professional contracts.

"The player and the club shall share equally in the initial consideration made available from any source pertaining to the professional right of the player," the clause stated.

Boucher explained that each CMJHL club is to help a player wanting to turn pro in his bargaining. The player would get to keep whatever salary and bonuses he can for signing, but the pro team would have to pay the junior team an additional amount for the player. The two clubs would negotiate this amount.

Boucher said that in addition to bonuses and salary, the player also would collect half of what the CMJHL team can get for him from the pro club.

"As far as the boy's contract goes, the junior club does not get out of that at all. That all belongs to the boy."

But, he added, that a player would have to bargain through his junior club.

Asked what stand the CMJHL would take if a professional team offered a player a large bonus but was willing to pay the club only a small amount, Boucher said:

"Unless a boy is expecting something unreasonable, we would decide in favor of the boy. We're nice-dentists set up for his good and nothing will be permitted to stand in his way."

But the league "would insist on reasonable and fair payment for the development of players."

School 'Spiel For Holidays

High school curlers can look forward to an exciting bonspiel during the Christmas holidays under the sponsorship of the Saanich Kiwanis Club and the Esquimalt Curling Club.

The mixed affair is scheduled to take place from Dec. 28 to 30th at the Sports Centre and is limited to 32 rinks. Each rink is guaranteed four games for their $5 entry fee.

Beginners are welcome and a banquet and dance are planned. Entry forms are available from all local rinks, Saanich Kiwanis members and junior and senior high schools.

Powell River Meets Nanaimo
Powell River can put a stranglehold on first place in the Pacific Coast Amateur Hockey League when they play host to Nanaimo on Saturday.

Alan Small of Powell River has 15 points for a narrow one-point lead over Nanaimo's Jim Peterson in the individual scoring race.

Peterson and Paul Blais of Port Alberni lead the goal scorers with seven each and Dave Nuttall of Port Alberni is the top playmaker with 10 assists.

Swedish Custom

Headpieces of Candles Highlight of Service

An old Swedish religious custom, which originated in Sicily, is being observed at 5 p.m. Sunday in the Anglican church hall at Tillamook and Carey Road.

The custom is based on the legend of Santa Lucia, a young Sicilian girl who was martyred and later was given sainthood by the Roman Catholic Church. The custom was adopted in Sweden many years ago and is still observed. Lucia is Italian for light and the ceremony could be called a festival of light.

SOCIAL EVENING
Mrs. Edith Gutemar of 3145 Blackwood said about 80 Swedish Canadians will attend the ceremony and social evening. Her husband Sven will be there.

There will be 10 young girl attendants, all in white, carrying candles. Two young boys will be star bearers and two others will be gnomes, dressed in red suits.

Santa Lucia will wear a crown of seven candles and while the procession parades about the hall, the group will sing the Santa Lucia song. Mrs. Gutemar said the Swedish words convey the meaning of the saint bringing light to dispel the darkness.

Asked about the danger of the saint's hair catching fire, she said a wet handkerchief is worn under the crown of burning candles.

Reference to the Sicilian Hydrobus No. 19 stops near the saint, called Saint Lucy in Anglican church hall.

White Gift, CGIT Services Numerous

This Sunday, the third in Advent, will be marked by white gift services in many Victoria churches and by special services by the Canadian Girls in Training.

The CGIT girls will be joining with more than 1,500 of their colleagues in congregations across Canada, to present a Huron Indian carol as the focal point of their Christmas vesper services.

PAGEANT FORM

The program was chosen to dramatize Canada's centenary.

A well-known Westerner, Gertrude Patmore, has dramatized the carol for presentation in pageant form.

A symbolic candlelight ceremony, traditional with the CGIT at this season, will also be featured.

PROBABLY OLDEST

The gospel story was first told by Father Jean de Brebeuf, one of the martyrs of Midland, Ont., more than 300 years ago. He wrote what is probably the oldest folk song in Canada.

In his carol the message of the angels is heard by wandering hunters, and Indian chiefs bring gifts of fox and beaver pelts to a Christ child wrapped in fur and lying in a bark lodge.

CHURCHES, TIMES

Among local churches where CGIT services will be held Sunday are Oak Bay United at 11 a.m., Metropolitan at 7:30 p.m., Emmanuel Baptist at 7:30 p.m., and First Baptist at 7:30 p.m.

White gifts will be presented at the Sunday school's annual Christmas program at 9:30 a.m. in St. Adan's United Church. There will be a Scout and Cub church parade at the 7:30 p.m. service. Guest preacher in the morning is Dr. H. W. Kerley of Fairfield United.

White gifts will be donated at the 11 a.m. service in James Bay United. Consisting mostly of groceries, the white-wrapped gifts will be dedicated for use in the church's Christmas hamper program. Adults will contribute to the world-wide relief program of the United Church in co-operation with the World Council of Churches. The 20-voice junior choir will sing special music.

In St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, the sacrament of the Lord's Supper will be celebrated at morning worship. Very Rev. Dr. J. L. W. McLean will preach at both Sunday services. A shortened communion service will follow evening worship.

White gifts will be brought to Metropolitan Church at the 11 a.m. service and the third Advent candle in the Advent wreath will be lit by a member of the Young Explorers group. A nativity pageant will be performed by the members of the church school with the junior-teen choir singing led by director Mrs. Forne Ratcliffe.

The white gifts will be placed in large baskets in the vestibule and will later be brought to the communion table by members of the Kairos for presentation during the service. They will be distributed among needy families.

Rev. E. Laura Butler will give the meditation at the CGIT service at 7:30 p.m.

Rev. N. K. Archer will talk on The Innkeeper at the 11 a.m. White Gift service in Emmanuel Baptist Church. The CGIT girls will form the choir at their evening service.

Christ and Our Restlessness is the sermon topic at 11 a.m. for Rev. John Watson in First Baptist Church.

"If at this Advent season we will hearken to the true meaning of Christmas and listen to what it has to say about the child in the manger at Bethlehem, by whom all human matters are kept and cared for, then indeed, the peace of God will keep our hearts and minds in Christ Jesus," Mr. Watson says.

At First United Church, a Japanese Christmas carol will be sung by the junior choir at the 9:30 a.m. service. Rev. Robert J. D. Morris will preach at 9:30 and 11 a.m. services on Bethlehem—Village of Sorrow. At the 7:30 p.m. chapel service, Rev. Marvin Fowler will preach on part two of The Continuing Incarnation. His subject is Jesus and the Disinherited. Jorgen Baess will share in the conduct of the 11 a.m. service, which will be broadcast over CKDA.

In Christ Church Cathedral, Rev. Dr. E. Frank Salmon will give the last of a series of sermons on Faith. He has delivered the sermons each month since June and his topic at 11 a.m. Sunday is Belief in the Final Consummation: Our Lord is Coming Again. "We should live looking for the glorious appearing of our great God and Saviour, Jesus Christ," says Dr. Salmon.

Work of restoration and decoration, which has taken place in the baptistry, will be dedicated at the morning service.

The work was carried out in memory of John Allen Christie, Albert Ernest Dewis, Martha Eleanor Dewis and John Kelley Dewis.

The golden text of this week's lesson-sermon in Island Christian Science churches is from Isaiah: "He shall feed his flock like a shepherd: He shall gather the lambs with his arm, and

Square Setting Of Play

The New World Players of First United Church will present Henri Ghen's play Christmas in the Market Place at 8 p.m. Thursday at the YM-YWCA family Christmas observance in the auditorium of the Y building.

The play has been set in Victoria's Centennial Square on Christmas Eve. There a family of gypsies, recently arrived in Canada, has set up camp and is making a living by presenting short plays.

FOR CROWD
They engage in conversation with passers-by and are eventually induced to do the Christmas story for the crowd. What follows is an engaging and delightful interpretation of the traditional Christmas story.

The production is the fourth and final one this year for the church's busy drama group. In addition to the Thursday evening performance, the group will be seen at 8:30 p.m., Dec. 21, 22 and 23 at the church and there will be a special performance at 7 p.m. Dec. 24 as part of the Christmas Eve family service. The play lasts one hour.

THE PLAYERS

Appearing in the production are Denis Johnston, Shirley Collins, Tom Howe, Janette Sumner, Ray Walker, Carolyn Zapp and Sheila Thomas.

Direction is by Jennifer Dutton and Rob Nelson.

Sacred Heart Get-Together

Former pupils of the world-wide Convents of the Sacred Heart are forming a new chapter for alumnae. A meeting will be held at 4 p.m. Sunday in St. Joseph's Hospital boardroom, and Rev. Mother M. Carter and Mother McNamara of the Point Grey Convent will attend. Mrs. P. N. Burnett, 385-3503, has information about the meetings.

Hundred Years Marked

Navy-Only Pew Traditional At Century-Old St. Paul's

A thanksgiving service is being held at 11 a.m. Sunday in St. Paul's Anglican Church, Esquimalt, to celebrate the 100th anniversary of the consecration of what is usually referred to as the old Naval and Garrison Church.

Lieutenant-Governor Pearkes and Mrs. Pearkes, who were married in the church 41 years ago, will attend the service. Mr. Pearkes will read the lesson. Archbishop Harold Sexton will preach.

ADMIRAL'S WIFE

The foundation stone of the church was laid Aug. 30, 1868, by Mrs. Denman, wife of Admiral George Denman, who was commander-in-chief of the naval station. Among the attending dignitaries was Chief Justice Needham.

The church, designed by architect Thomas Trowe, was completed early in December. It had seating accommodation for 100 persons and men.

NAVY PEWS

An Admiralty grant of £100 sterling was made towards the initial cost of the building, on the understanding that men belonging to the naval yard and the navy have certain pews allotted to them.

To this day, the left front pew, just below the pulpit, is reserved for the senior naval officer, the flag officer Pacific Coast, and a small brass plaque to this effect is affixed to the front of the pew for all to see.

There is a similar plaque for the "Officer Commanding Military District No. 11" on the front pew on the right side of the aisle.

Consecration of the church took place Dec. 12, 1868, by the Bishop of Columbia.

The church was moved in 1904 from its original site just outside the present Dockyard gate at the seaward base of Signal Hill.

It was laboriously hauled on rollers over the hill to its present site at Grafton and Esquimalt. Some remodeling of the church has resulted in seating for an additional 125 persons.

The present priest, Rev. J. A. Roberts, is 22nd to serve the church. He recently celebrated his 15th year as padre of St. Paul's.

Former Victorians Home in Africa

Treatment of malaria, typhus, bubonic plague, yellow fever and sleeping sickness are a way of life for former Victoria doctor J. A. Hay, who wouldn't have it any different.

Dr. Hay and his wife Gertrude retired to Victoria in 1961 to educate their four children, all born in Africa. But, after two years, the whole family wanted to return "home" to Africa because they felt they were needed.

NURSING SCHOOL

Manitoba-born Dr. Hay went to Ruanda-Urundi in 1963 to set up a medical centre and nursing school, under the auspices of the Seventh-day Adventists, on the shores of Lake Kivu.

His wife, the former Gertrude Rigby of Kamloops and a graduate of St. Joseph's Hospital in Victoria, went to assist him. The children were to go to school in Cape Town.

DESERT VILLAGE

The Hays previously lived in Kenya, a Kalahari desert village where they ran a 70-bed hospital and nurses' training school.

They knew the Bushmen, Hottentots, Bantus and other tribes. They made 800-mile safaris into the dry wilderness. They treated tropical diseases and contracted some themselves.

WITCH DOCTORS

A recent letter from Dr. Hay to Victoria Adventists told of his work to combat the superstitions of "the people and his attempts to get them to come for medical help instead of relying on witch doctors.

He told of a woman whose baby died before it was born and how he finally saved the mother.

HAVE ANOTHER

"If we could only get blood for transfusions," he wrote. "Yesterday, the woman (who lost her baby) was lucky. At surgery we scooped out the blood, strained it through gauze into a bottle, and shot it back into a vein. She will live, and next year have another child.

"How thankful I am that we have a prayer-bearing and prayer-answering God to help us for I am sure it is no skill of ours often that brings them through.

LONG AND TIRING

"There were more than 100 inpatients to see in the hospital that morning, a leg to amputate for cancerous change in an old tropical ulcer, and more than 200 outpatients at the clinic.

"My colleague, Dr. Whiting, and I found the day long and tiring as we sought to cope with the seemingly endless stream of people. Parasites of almost every variety, malnutrition especially kwashiorkor, and tuberculosis probably formed the bulk of the diagnoses.

"Again today, so many of them were coming too late, bearing on their bodies the marks of the ministrations of the witch doctors... weeks of wasted time when the disease has been allowed to become inoperable.

"And what is more tragic, the time for spiritual healing is also short, for unless God works a miracle, they will surely die. "Again today, a little time was taken, holding up the stream of patients, to present the man now incurable to the soon-coming Saviour, and to pray for him."

Reform Gains Recognition

Victoria Diocese Honored

EDMONTON — Major steps in implementing a democratic process in Roman Catholic Church administration has put the diocese of Victoria in the forefront of renewal in Canada, says the Western Catholic Reporter.

The independent Catholic weekly, edited here by laymen, devoted one-third of its current 12-page issue to first-hand reports analyzing the effects of changes in Alberta and B.C. during the first year after the Second Vatican Council.

The paper singled out Victoria as the national leader on the basis of Bishop Reml J. De Roo's far-reaching announcement to share his authority in decision-making with an elected senate of priests. Earlier in the year, the 42-year-old bishop conducted a wide-ranging public opinion survey in his diocese.

FOR REUNION

The Vatican Council, which ended Dec. 8, 1965, set the stage for updating the Catholic Church in the modern world and opened initiatives for reunion of all Christians.

For Catholics generally, the past year was one of ferment and study. Reports from five Alberta dioceses and four in B.C. give a broad picture of a new ecumenical dimension and inter-faith rapport. Greater community spirit is evident in modernized ways of worship, including the popular folk Masses for young adults.

Bishop De Roo

A re-examination of all aspects of Church life and study of ways to implement the 16 decrees of Vatican II are going on in the diocesan and parochial levels.

Parliamentary Boys Need Places to Stay

Billets are still needed for delegates to the Boys' Parliament the end of this month. The boys are to be picked up after 4:30 p.m. Dec. 27 at the Legislative Buildings, given dinner that night and bed and breakfast for four nights.

First United Church is compiling a list of hosts before Dec. 21.

Chaplains End Indoctrination

A military indoctrination course for chaplains at Canadian Forces Base, Esquimalt, will end with a passing-out ceremony at 3:30 p.m. Wednesday on Venture parade ground.

The course, which began Sept. 26, included for the first time, both Protestant and Roman Catholic chaplains from the three forces.

The two months' course has been carried out at the Venture Officers' School in two phases, the first 40 days devoted to basic military indoctrination, including drill, marching, and parade ground routine. The remaining 16 days were devoted to professional orientation to duties in the service environment.

Religious advisors of the course were Rev. Gordon Faraday, Protestant command chaplain and Father Regis Pelletier, Roman Catholic command chaplain.

"One of the purposes of the course is to make the chaplains aware of the whole concept of the armed forces and their role in it," Father Pelletier said Friday.

Lectures were given by local clergy and chaplains from Ottawa.

FIELD TRIPS

During the course the men visited the Queen's Own Rifles of Canada in Calgary and the RCAF at Comox. They took trips in the submarine HMCS Crux and on a naval auxiliary vessel.

The navy and air force had basic courses for their chaplains at CFB Cornwall, N.S., and CFB Centralia, Ont., but the army had no equivalent.

ANNUAL EVENT

Depending on the yearly intake, the new course will be scheduled annually. Seventeen took place in the initial course.

Most of the chaplains are beginning a career in the forces. The hope is to attract young clergymen as soon as they complete their theological training and initial pastoral experience.

The final function will be a dinner at HMCS Naden wardroom after the afternoon parade.

Carol Festival For Cathedral

A Festival of Nine Lessons and Carols will be held at 4 p.m., Dec. 18, in Christ Church Cathedral. Lieutenant-Governor and Mrs. Pearkes will attend the service and Mr. Pearkes will read the 8th lesson.

SUNDAY, 10 a.m.
VICTORIA WELCOMES 1961 PEACE WEEK

"The healthy re-examination going on at all levels in the Church today — bishops, clergy, sisters, laity — is one of the great blessings of this first year," the paper said in an editorial.

FIRST OBJECT

Referring to Pope Paul VI's comment that "self-awareness" in the Church was the first object of the Council, the editorial added: "The proper appraisal of the Year I, then, is not how much we have done but how much we are thinking."

Liturgical changes, most notably the use of English or French in the Mass, and participation by the people at Mass, have helped to bring the spirit of the Council closer to the people. In Vancouver, pastors now are bringing the Mass to homes and apartments as means of developing a family spirit in the community.

NEW STRUCTURES

The bishops, like their counterparts across the nation, began setting up new structures to improve communications in the Church. Senates of priests are being established to consult with the bishops; and pastoral councils of priests, religious and laity are being organized to help better the religious life of the people.

An epochal development, however, was Bishop De Roo's commitment to govern from now on "by consensus" of his priests rather than by the traditional method of "directives and obedience." He thus went one step further than the Papal decree which sees senates of priests as having "only a consultative vote."

TAKING PLACE

The laity, long in the back benches when it comes to making decisions in the Church, began taking their place in renewal. However, the development of lay leadership and of more ways to thrust men and women into the front row remained two big goals.

Parish councils, groups of laymen and women who advise their pastors on the spiritual and material needs in their parishes, are helping to improve clergy-laity relations.

City Gardener Wonders

Are All Yugoslavians Blacklisted?

A perplexed Yugoslavian landscape gardener who has been living in Canada for 10 years is having difficulty understanding Canada's immigration laws.

Milko Jadresko, 120 Dallas, is engaged in a battle to keep his cousin, Vinco Kucina in Canada after he jumped ship in Sorel, Que., and came west.

What Mr. Jadresko is unable to understand about the law is that it appears to discriminate against Yugoslavians.

"Some time ago I wanted to get my brother to come to Canada," he said, "the immigration people told me to have him jump ship in another country then make application to immigrate to Canada. Does it make sense that they would say that, then forbid a man to stay in the country when he jumps ship right in Canada?" asked Mr. Jadresko.

A hassle rose in Parliament over a similar case in which two Yugoslav sailors that jumped ship and were living in Toronto were threatened with deportation. When Opposition leader John Diefenbaker questioned Manpower Minister Marchand he was told a delicate question was involved but the minister did not elaborate.

They were flown home Wednesday night.

Word that Mr. Kucina was to be deported came from the immigration department last month but since then Mr. Jadresko has asked for help from Victoria MP David Gross who has put a stop on the action.

Twenty-six-year-old Mr. Kucina has picked up help for his cause in the form of 68 Yugoslavians living here, 100 students and teachers from Victoria High School have offered help as well as 150 of Mr. Jadresko's personal friends who have signed a petition.

A teacher has volunteered English lessons.

people. Why do they want to treat Yugoslavians who want to live in a free country that way?" he asked.

"This makes me so angry that it is no longer important that Kinko is my cousin. It is not right," he said.

Mr. Marchand said cases where seamen had jumped ship and were deported back to Yugoslavia had been investigated through the Canadian Embassy and there was no evidence of persecution but according to Mr. Jadresko this is not true.

"Once you are on the black list there will be no good jobs offered, no passport," he said.

"Everywhere you go you get pushed around. People will be calling you a deserter and saying you went to Canada and got turned down," he said.

"I would rather go to jail in this country for six months and come out a free man than have to face that," he said.

Vinco Kucina came to Victoria four months ago and since his arrival has been employed by his cousin.

Mr. Jadresko who owns three properties has offered to guarantee his cousin by posting a bond or any other way the government suggests — just so he gets to stay in Canada.

Crazy Record Did It

Vallee's Megaphone Dusted Off Again

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Because of a crazy new hit record called Winchester Cathedral, Rudy Vallee finds himself hauling out his megaphone once more.

For the benefit of the new generation that knows him only as the stuffed-shirt magnate of How to Succeed in Business Without Really Trying, it should be explained that Vallee was the Beatle of the aspirin age. Through the depression years his nasal baritone was heard in ballrooms, theatres and through radios and phonographs.

THE FIRST

He was the first of the crooners.

"I never had a very strong voice," he says, "and the only way I could be heard — this was before loudspeakers — was with a megaphone."

The conical cardboard gave his voice a distinctive sound, and it has been reproduced in the curious new record, Winchester Cathedral, by a British outfit called the New Vaudeville Band.

HOW HE HEARD

The first Vallee heard about it was when a Hollywood record company called him while he was appearing a few weeks ago in a St. Paul, Minn. nightclub.

"How would you like to make some records?" he was asked. "Are you out of your mind?" said the blunt Vallee. "Some dripping nostalgia grows on the listener.

By the time Vallee had returned to Hollywood, four record companies wanted him to make his own rendition of Winchester Cathedral, as well as other tunes. He chose Viva records, a subsidiary of Dot.

WITH OTHERS

He recorded the hit tune, along with some others of his own era: The Whiffenpoof Song, Sweetheart of Sigma Chi, Who, and My Blue Heaven.

Vallee still has the red megaphone he first used while singing with a five-piece society band at Maine resorts in 1924.

Now a pink-cheeked 65, Vallee expects no rebirth of his singing fame. He plans to continue purring his acting career, and may turn up on Batman soon.

days I can't even talk, much less sing."

He was told about the Winchester Cathedral record, and he said he would listen to it before making up his mind.

Vallee didn't care for the record at first, but he admitted it was a "good value."

Rehabilitation for Alcoholics Aim of New Area Organization

Greater Victoria Council on Alcoholism president John Gough is seeking recruits for the battle against the rapidly increasing incidence of the disease affecting 4,000 to 6,000 persons in the community.

Mr. Gough, newly elected to the presidency of the infant organization, is spearheading the club's drive to establish a half-way house where alcoholics may be domiciled for a period of rehabilitation.

A property for this purpose is under consideration by a committee of the council, and methods of financing the project are under study.

VITAL NEED

The project, Mr. Gough said, is vitally needed in the community, which now lacks treatment facilities for the chronic alcoholic. The hospitals are reluctant to accept them for treatment, he said.

Presently, the alcoholic must be sent to jail when they appear in court, Mr. Gough said, although some are cared for on a temporary basis by the Salvation Army's Harbor Light Corps. No adequate medical attention is available, however.

ALL RESOURCES

The council, with a good cross-section of the community represented in its members, hopes to utilize the community's resources to fight this problem, he said.

The groups involved in the council are: The Victoria branch of the Alcoholism Foundation of B.C., Salvation Army, Alcohol Research and Education Council of B.C., Victoria Presbytery of

Troubled Actress Loses Home

HOLLYWOOD — Actress Rita Novak, whose home in posh Bel Air was severely damaged by a brush fire a few years ago, has had to leave it forever due to a ruidslide on the steep hill behind it.

After the city building and safety department called her home of six years unsafe, she said: "I may leave Hollywood altogether, retire... I may leave it all, acting, all of it."

NEW YORK — Comedian Dick Gregory returned from London, where he was awaiting a visa from North Viet Nam, to report U.S. bombing of Hanoi prevented him from visiting the northern capital to entertain U.S. prisoners.

PARIS — Soviet Premier Kossygin ended his nine-day state visit to France by joining President de Gaulle in a joint declaration warning the Viet Nam war may spill over into neighboring nations. They blamed the gravity of the war on outside intervention but gave no hint of warring proposals.

CINCINNATI — Frail spinster Lila Kerrick, 81, was slain in

Gregory

Novak

LONDON — Seven angry schoolboys at Sudbury have protested that Prince Charles is getting into Cambridge by the back door. The seven, studying for their own university entrance exams, said the prince doesn't have necessary qualifications and his entry is "a truly blatant misuse of royal prerogative."

AUCKLAND, New Zealand — Canadian draughtsman Ken Wells, 29, who designed and built his 20-foot yacht Thimblebina, landed a 7,000-mile voyage from Vancouver, which he left early last June. He said he'll work here a few years then sail from port to port for the rest of his life.

TORONTO — Michael Hind-Smith, 35, confirmed he has been dismissed after five years as vice-president of programming for the CTV television network.

MEXICO CITY — A juvenile gang poured gasoline over a four-year-old boy and turned him into a human torch. Marco Antonio Sanchez died of his burns.

PRETORIA — A controversial book describing Negroes as inferior and calling for world domination by whites has been banned by South Africa's publications control board. It is HAMILTON, Bermuda — The eighth Earl of Essex, Algonquin George de Vere Capell, died at 82. His son by his first marriage, Viscount Malden, becomes the ninth holder of the title created in 1661.

Ombudsman Discussions Proceeding

OTTAWA (CP) — The possible appointment of a federal ombudsman to protect individuals against unfair bureaucratic actions has been discussed with the provinces. Prime Minister Pearson told the Commons Friday.

He said the question bears "a direct relationship to the provinces" and promised to make statement next week.

FOUR PROVINCES
Social Credit Leader Robert Thompson said four provinces have announced plans to name provincial ombudsmen in recent months. He asked when the federal government would act.

The four who have recently announced plans for an ombudsman are Manitoba, Alberta, Quebec and Nova Scotia. Saskatchewan announced a committee ago a proposal to name an ombudsman.

SPEECH RECALLED
Mr. Thompson recalled that the throne speech at the opening of the 1965 session of Parliament promised a royal commission inquiry into the possibility of naming an ombudsman.

Opposition Leader Diefenbaker, noting that the United Nations will observe Human Rights Day Saturday, asked whether the government has approached the provinces on the possibility of inserting the 1961 Bill of Rights into the Canadian constitution.

NO DISCUSSIONS
Mr. Pearson said there have been no discussions on this subject.

Mr. Diefenbaker complained that the Queen's Printer has stopped printing illuminated scrolls bearing the Canadian Bill of Rights, which bear his signature, and said there are many demands for the document.

Mr. Pearson said he will check with the Queen's Printer about the situation.

Shuswap Man Dies in Fire

CHASE (CP) — William Charles August, 20, of the Shuswap Indian Reserve, five miles west of Chase, has died in a fire at his home. August apparently was in the house when a gasoline lamp exploded as his father attempted to adjust it.

NOTTINGHAM, England — Ronald (Buster) Edwards, 35, suspected mastermind of the 1963 Great Train Robbery which netted £2,600,000, was imprisoned for 15 years.

CLEVELAND — Dennis Hale, 26, lone survivor of the Nov. 19 sinking of the freighter Daniel A. Moore in Lake Huron, filed suit for $150,000 against the ship's operators, Bethlehem Steel alleging the ship was unseaworthy.

OLD MALDEN, England — Rev. Michael Hewlett, 50, told his congregation he turned down an invitation to join the London Playboy club because "sex is one of the gifts of God" and "I prefer the real thing."

BELGRADE — President Tito ended a six-month criminal investigation of purged ex-vice president Aleksandar Rankovic, whose secret police tapped the phones and planted listening devices in the presidential residence and office in a "struggle for power." The investigation concluded the state security services as a whole had not been involved in conspiracies against the state.

VANCOUVER — W. G. Murda, former B.C. Electric president who died in 1964, left an estate of more than $1,000,000 to a dozen Vancouver area churches and charities.

NEW YORK — Gina Lollobrigida left hospital after a two-day stay for treatment of an intestinal attack. She blamed on an unwashed apple she ate in Mexico.

LONDON — Queen Mother Elizabeth, 86, is to stay in hospital for treatment after a medical checkup. No details of her illness were given. Queen Elizabeth has laryngitis and has been ordered not to speak for several days so she can regain her voice in time to record her Christmas message.

U Thant

Thant View:

Parents Must Decide

UNITED NATIONS (UPI) — Secretary General U Thant, in his first official birth-control appeal, declared Friday parents must be given the right to determine the size of their own families.

He expressed his views on the population explosion after receiving a cautionary declaration on population growth and human dignity and welfare signed by 12 heads of state from all corners of the world.

FIRST TIME

Focusing on birth control for the first time in any public statement, Thant said:

"The size of the family is a fundamental human problem which must be based on the decisions of responsible parents concerned with the dignity and well being of their children."

Thant said: "We must accord the right of parents to determine the numbers of their children a place of importance at this moment in man's history."

MANY CASES

"The problem of the growing food shortage cannot be solved without in many cases a simultaneous effort to moderate population growth," Thant added.

He said he fully respected the problem of "faith and conscience" which many still face in relation to the means designed to limit the size of families.

"But," he added, "...I feel bound to call attention to a declaration expressing concern with the quality of human life as well as with the number of human beings on earth."

HEADS OF STATE

Thant referred to the statement signed by the heads of state of Colombia, Finland, India, Malaysia, Morocco, Nepal, South Korea, Singapore, Sweden, Tunisia, the United Arab Republic and Yugoslavia.

Aberfan Heroes Arguing

MERTHYR TYDFIL, Wales (Reuters) — Welsh police and civil defence chiefs clashed Friday over the civil defence institute's award to rescue worker Ronald Hicks for his part in digging out survivors of the Aberfan coal waste disaster.

Merthyr's chief police constable, Thomas Griffiths, issued a statement Thursday denying that Hicks, county civil defence leader, supervised the four-day, non-stop rescue operation and search for survivors of the 116 children and 28 adults in October.

CHIEF IN CHARGE

"It sounds as if he was running the whole ruddy show," Griffiths said. "I, as chief constable of Merthyr Tydfil, was in charge of all rescue and clearance operations."

Hicks replied he was in charge of operations on the site of the buried school and houses, but said the criticism led him to refuse the gold medal.

TRAINED TEAM

He insisted the site was in chaos when he arrived on the morning of Oct. 21 with a trained team of 70 civil defence workers.

Merthyr's local civil defence officer, Eric Lewis, who received a bronze medal from the institute for his work at Aberfan, said he felt the rescue was no much a joint operation that no one should have been singled out. "Not even me."

Adele Lewis guards Peter Beck's flaming lobster

Great Chef Honored By Gourmet Guests

By WILLIAM THOMAS

From pate de fole gras to the final cheese course only one chef stands supreme in Victoria — Peter Beck at the Strathcona. Friday night a group of the city's gourmets met to pay tribute to the master at his home hotel.

The Swiss-born master of the skillet was not content to sit back on past laurels but offered the select company further samples of his art.

FLAMING DESSERT

Last October Mr. Beck delighted his gourmet guests with such delicacies as Cameton Bigarrade and Tournedos Rossini with a flaming Bombe Jubilee for dessert.

For the Friday night gathering in his honor Mr. Beck offered a piping hot consommé of shark fin soup, a lobster course that flamed and smoked in vintage brandy and a steak course that had the gourmets mumbling for words.

The wines were superb. A dry champagne, Veuve Cliquot, lifted the fole gras and caviar out of the ordinary into the memorable and a nutty sherry complemented the salad and lobster.

Lobster is lobster, but prepared by Peter Beck, it is an event. He melted the butter and brandy in his skillet and went through his culinary magic in public view.

To set the lobster apart a classic Graves wine was served that provided just sufficient body to carry the aromatic sauce to perfection.

DEFIED THE KNIFE

In his memorable banquet last year, Peter Beck chose Tournedos Rossini. For his award ceremony, the top chef picked Tournedos de Boeuf Perigourdine.

This was a steak that defied the knife—a magnificent creation decorated with truffles and mushrooms. Served with the red wine titled Chateau Neuf Du Pape, it was a feast fit for kings.

It seems the principal Avignon pope took unto himself a castle and to this day only 80 tons of grapes are pressed on the premises. This is the wine that helped the Strathcona steak slide down.

By the time the liqueur was served there was no doubt Peter Beck was chef supreme.

POINT PROVED

The surpassing delight of Bombe Diable with its cream and ice cream was just frosting on the cake after this master chef had proved his point.

A fine selection of French cheeses gave the gathered gourmets time to reflect on the occasion.

Here was a great chef at his best.

Grilse Sinks Tradition

HMCS Grilse, defying the navy tradition that women and chaplains are not allowed to sail aboard submarines, went on a cruise in the Strait of Juan de Fuca this past week with 17 service padres aboard—and the cruise went off without a hitch. The 17 were from the newly-established Canadian Forces chaplains' school at HMC Dockyard.

Eight Areas Fill Councils, School Boards

Dozens of Candidates Learn Future Today

The moment of truth arrives today for the dozens of candidates seeking council and school board seats in the Greater Victoria area.

Polls open at 8 a.m. and close at 8 p.m. in all areas — Victoria, Saanich, Oak Bay, Esquimalt, Central Saanich, North Saanich, Sidney and the View Royal "panhandle." Full results will be in Sunday's Colonist.

Attendance at all-candidate forums has been frequently described as poor, indicating a lack of interest in most contests.

The most interesting battles were the mayoralty race in Victoria, the fluoridation referendum in Oak Bay and the amalgamation issue for ratepayers in View Royal's "panhandle" area.

Victoria's Acting Mayor Cecil Parrott Friday urged a good turnout.

"The city is entering one of the most crucial periods in its history. It is of vital importance that our next mayor, whoever he may be, receive a strong mandate from the people," he said.

Here are the polling places for each area:

Victoria — Victoria Ballroom, 1600 Government, the only polling station in the city.

Saanich — Cloverdale School, Frank Hobbs School, Glenford School, Gordon Head Elementary School, Lansdowne Junior High School, Seaview Plaza, St. Joseph's Parish Hall, Mount View High School, Prospect Lake Community Hall, Royal Oak Secondary School, St. Luke's Hall, St. Martin's-in-the-Field Hall and Tillicum School.

Esquimalt — Municipal hall, 1229 Esquimalt Road.

View Royal Panhandle — Unit 15, Craigflower Motel, 101 Craigflower Road.

Oak Bay — Municipal hall, 2167 Oak Bay Avenue.

North Saanich — Parish hall, 1319 Mills Road.

Sidney — Municipal hall.

No Drinks Until 8

Bars and beer parlors will be closed until 8 p.m. today for the civic election in the Greater Victoria area. Liquor stores will be closed all day.

Bars, beer parlors and liquor stores will, of course, remain open in areas outside Greater Victoria not affected by civic elections.

It's Positively, Negatively Needed

One thousand blood donors are needed to put Victoria's pre-Christmas Red Cross clinics over the top and ensure an adequate supply of blood for the holiday season.

Group O, Rh positive and negative is needed in particular, Red Cross officials said Friday.

Three clinics will be held:

Tuesday, Red Cross House, 1046 Fort, 1:30 to 4:30 p.m. and 6:30 to 9 p.m.

Wednesday, Legislative Buildings, Room 205, 9 a.m. to noon, 1 to 4 p.m.

Thursday, HMC Dockyard, Venture gymnasium, 9 a.m. to noon, 1 to 4 p.m.

Surprises No Problem With Hair in Hatbox

By NANCY BROWN

Any Victoria woman can now have an insurance policy that will protect her against rain, wind, embarrassment, and social disaster.

Wigs are on sale in Victoria, and while it costs more to be blonde than brunette, it's still a good way to keep hair in its place.

Hair, like teen-agers, has a mind of its own, and it's time for women to become emancipated and not have to give in to the whims of her tresses.

The minute a knock comes on the door, or there's an unexpected invitation to an evening out, hair turns dull and stringy or wild and spiky.

What is more, every husband has an uncanny knack for picking on the day that hair has taken charge of its owner to extend an invitation to some high jinks.

It seems that it is impossible for a woman to control her hair, and anything else at the same time.

With the co-operation of an artful hairdresser, she spends three hours bending hair to her will and how do you know it's either raining or blowing a gale.

If the weather isn't against her, then the children will be waiting to caress her new colture—having prepared themselves with lots of sticky toffee, well smeared.

Do the neighbors, the clergymen, or sisters-in-law ever arrive without hair staging a protest?

The solution—a beautiful wig, secure in a box on the hall table, to put on at first sight of visitors, or to take in the car to be worn only when safely inside the door at the destination.

What is more, with several wigs on hand, personality can change from dignified to sexy as the occasion and visitor demands—how about a porcupine wig to shoot spears at salesmen?

1,400 Here Must Wait

Medals: Much Later

By KEN WARREN

Greater Victorians eligible for centennial medallions won't be receiving their medals until sometime after April 1, 1967, it was learned Friday.

Cecil Wyatt, secretary-treasurer of the Victoria committee, said 1,400 Greater Victorians have applied for the medal, and many are already asking the whereabouts of theirs.

JOBS REMAINING

"We only received word today of a request (from the B.C. committee) to order the medallions," he said. "We have to make up a roster of the 1,400 names and decide on the date they will be presented."

According to provincial committee regulations, three months' notice must be given when announcing the date on which presentation will be made.

AS REQUIRED

"If we obeyed the regulations as required we couldn't possibly have (our presentations) before April 1," Mr. Wyatt said.

Bob Gillespie, executive assistant to the provincial centennial committee, said his committee is not concerned with arranging functions.

"Every local centennial committee is responsible for correlating its own program," he said. "The provincial committee makes the medals available after the local committee arranges its function."

Asked if exceptions could be made in cases like that of Edgar Crossley, who became 103 on his birthday Friday, Mr. Gillespie said:

"We'd be in an awful mess if we waited over Victoria's head." Mr. Crossley had told a Colonist reporter earlier this week when asked about his age: "I'll be 103 on Friday, if I live that long."

The old gentleman also said holding the medal in his hand will be the highlight in his life.

The Victoria committee is planning a garden party, picnic or dinner for presentation of the awards.

Mr. Wyatt said the 1,400 Greater Victoria applicants comprise the second largest group of applicants for the medal in B.C., exceeded only by Vancouver's 1,800 applicants.

Edgar Crossley

103rd Birthday Biggest Party

Friday was an extra special day for Edgar Crossley.

He was the centre of attention all day long as he celebrated his 103rd birthday and received the congratulations of 70 visitors, as well as patients and staff at Oak Lodge private hospital, where he lives.

LOT OF HANDSHAKES

"It was the biggest party in the life of the hospital," said administrator Paul Shipman. "I'll bet Mr. Crossley shook hands 500 times."

To top it all off, the managers from both the Canadian Pacific and Canadian National Telecommunications personally delivered greeting messages from Queen Elizabeth and Prime Minister Pearson respectively.

Messages arrived as well from provincial and municipal leaders.

Mr. Crossley who had drilled with Canadian forces in Brandon during the Northwest rebellion (1885) and saw Canada's first prime minister, Sir John A. Macdonald, on several occasions, lives at the hospital with his wife Mary, 90.

His comment when it was all over: "I'm very, very happy. But I'm really tired, too!"

Longshoremen Relieved

'Now We Can Eat Turkey'

By GEORGE INGLIS

South Vancouver Island ports came back to life Friday in time to paint a brighter Christmas picture for longshoremen and forest workers.

"It makes all the difference between bacon and turkey for Christmas," said one longshoreman Thursday night, after the news of the settlement of the waterfront dispute reached the office on Dallas Road.

Longshoremen, with one eye on the calendar, were willing to waive proper dispatch procedure and go to work without formalities, but some paper work had to be done before the cargoes could start moving.

Friday morning, 173 men went to work from the Victoria International Longshoremen's and Warehousemen's dispatch centre in Victoria, to work cargoes in Victoria, Cowichan Bay, Crofton and Chemainus. Just 10 men were working at Ogden Point, working the lone ship in port, the grain ship Grecian Emblem.

Four gangs went to work this morning on the lumber ship Master George, which arrived Friday evening at Ogden Point.

The settlement agreed upon Thursday by the maritime employers and the striking longshore foremen was a compromise, according to the B.C. Maritime Employers Association president Edward Strang.

Mr. Strang said the agreement, proposed by the federal government and accepted by the two parties, gives the foremen the right to unilateral bargaining with employers with the right to further arbitration. It does not provide for a foremen's association, he said.

The foremen, members of Local 514 of the ILWU, went on strike in the first place seeking certification of their local and the right to group bargaining.

The employers maintained throughout 22 days of dispute that the foremen were management personnel and not entitled to group negotiations.

When the longshoremen refused to cross the foremen's picket lines, the employers obtained an injunction ordering them back to work. Hours later the employers let crews go, claiming they were practising slowdown tactics.

The longshoremen countered by saying it was inexperienced administrative personnel causing the slowdowns.

The employers ceased hiring crews finally, demanding assurance from the union that the crews would give a full day's work. At the same time, they filed suit for damages against the union.

Labour Minister J. R. Nicholson came from Ottawa to intervene as shipping ground to a standstill and layoffs in the forest industry, caused by the shipping hull, mounted.

Mr. Nicholson's first proposal last weekend, proposed an association other than the ILWU for the foremen and the right to grievance procedures. The foremen approved and the employers rejected this proposal.

Mr. Nicholson returned to Ottawa and the attempt at quick legislation to appoint a public administrator and reopen the docks under his control was blocked by one MP. Then came Thursday's surprise development.

ANN LANDERS

Dear Ann Landers: I am interested in the letter from the man who wouldn't let his wife see him without a T-shirt. You said it was probably because he was brought up to feel ashamed of his body and that he should seek psychological help.

Why do you always go after the double-dome answer when the real answer might be very simple? — like in my case. When I was young and foolish and in the Navy I got drunk and had a nude woman tattooed on my chest. I was ashamed of that tattoo and refused to take my shirt off in front of my wife for the first three months of our marriage.

Finally I told my doctor because it was making me sick with worry. He advised me to have a "Show and Tell Party" — and get it over with. I did and it worked out great. My wife was relieved because she knew something was wrong and couldn't figure it out.

I hope the man who wrote to you will take my advice before both he and his wife become nervous wrecks. — F.J.

Dear F.J.: Thanks for telling us how you handled your problem. But look, Bub, you had a tattoo to hide. I'm not sure this other fellow is keeping himself covered for that reason. If he is, I hope he takes your advice. If he isn't, I hope he takes mine.

Dear Ann Landers: Every year at Christmas and for our anniversary, my husband's sister gives us a cheap present that I can't use anywhere.

What in the world can I do with a plaster of Paris bust of President Johnson that stands 26 inches high and sells for $3.98? Last Christmas Sister sent a picture that you plug in and it glows in the dark. It takes up half the living room wall and is just plain grotesque. My husband says we have to keep it up or she will be offended. I need some help before I flip. — MRS. GARBAGE DUMP

Dear Mrs. Dump: You can't tell a person to stop sending junky gifts, no matter how grotesque.

I say 30 days on display should be enough for the pictures — and anything else you consider out of character in your home.

President Johnson could, of course, be brought back on state occasions, like when Sister comes to call.

Dear Ann Landers: Why are people so afraid of mental therapy? Many cities have a mental health centre that operates on a pay-as-you-go basis and the therapists are just waiting to help.

I went to the clinic for help and it relaxed me so much that my husband decided to go. Now we get along together better than ever and we are both enjoying good health. Why don't you tell people? — MRS. E.C.

Dear Mrs. E.C.: I have told people. Honey — to the point where I've been accused of being a paid flack for the psychiatric association.

I've said it before (like a thousand times), and I'll say it again. Some folks get nothing out of therapy but doctor bills. Others find a whole new life. If a person is miserable, he owes it to himself and his family to find out if he can fit the second category.

OES Fete Raises $570

The K of P Hall was decorated with yellow and mauve chrysanthemums, greenery and holly when Centennial Chapter No. 87 Order of the Eastern Star held its annual bazaar. The affair, which realized approximately $570, was opened by Mrs. J. Fletcher, worthy grand matron of B.C. Guests were received by Worthy Matron Mrs. P. Fediw. Bazaar convener was Miss Joan Stancombe.

Decorations were also colorful for the tea which was arranged by Mrs. L. Marshall. The tea tables were centred with dainty Christmas centrepieces. Assisting the tea convener were Mrs. M. Whiteside, Mrs. D. Guy, Mrs. M. Buxton, Mrs. V. Werthner, Mrs. R. Owens, Mrs. D. Lewis, Mrs. A. McLeod, Mrs. R. Olson, Mrs. M. Brown, Mrs. I. Williamson.

Presiding at the head table were matrons of Victoria and area chapters, Mrs. L. Chaney, Mrs. M. Davies, Mrs. M. Hindle, Mrs. E. Hawkes, Mrs. D. McLaughlin, Mrs. C. DeYaeger, Grand Officer, Mrs. J. Lunson, and Past Matron, Mrs. J. Kettle.

Stall conveners were: Home baking, Mrs. D. Perrins, Mrs. E. Stancombe, Mrs. M. Menkes; sewing, Mrs. D. Leason, Mrs. M. Husband, Mrs. H. Emery; $1.00 and Under, Mrs. M. Hamilton, Mrs. E. Keown, Mrs. M. Lee; Candy, Mrs. M. Price, Mrs. M. Bridgman, Mrs. J. Kettle; white elephant, Mrs. M. Ellis, Mrs. E. Robertson; penny raffle, Mrs. E. Pickering; Mrs. M. Coombs, Mrs. A. Poole; bingo, Mr. Fediw, Mr. W. Pace, Mr. W. Wickes; cards, Mrs. W. Wickes.

In charge of contests were Mrs. J. Irwin, Mrs. E. Bucklingham, Mrs. M. Perkins, Mrs. A. Kerridge.

Mrs. H. Douglas, Mrs. J. Graham and Mrs. C. Butler were in charge of receipts.

Buffalo Steaks Expo Lure

OTTAWA (CP) — One more enticement to attend Expo '67 — Buffalo steaks — has been held out by Northern Development Minister Laing.
He announced meat obtained from thinning the herd at Wood Buffalo National Park this winter will be reserved for "Canadian specialty caterers" at the world's fair in Montreal next year.

The announcement described buffalo meat as "one of Canada's most famous foods."
It explained the herd of 10,000 to 12,000 animals in Wood Buffalo Park, straddling the Alberta-Northwest Territories boundary, is thinned periodically to "maintain proper herd balance." It was too early yet to tell how much meat would be available.

What's So Funny?

More Jokes About Marriage Than Any Other Subject

By PATRICIA McCORMACK

NEW YORK (UPI) — Marriage, in case you haven't noticed, rates as the most laughable subject of all.

Mark Wachs, who says so, makes a part of his living writing gags. He and George Q. Lewis, executive director of the National Association of Gag-writers, worked together in producing The Best Jokes of All Time and How to Tell Them (Hawthorn).

"Marriage," he said, "is the butt of more jokes than any other subject. It's not just that marriage is laughable but also that it is a big common denominator. Besides, marriage needs laughter to help people survive it."

Wachs maintains women have a much better sense of humor than men.

"Although men may be more demonstrative in reacting to a joke or a funny story, women are better sports and laugh more easily at themselves," he said. "The reason is that women are basically more secure than men are."

"Men are much more self-conscious and are much more sensitive to being the butt of a joke than women are."

To prove it to yourself, Wachs suggested listening to television comedians. You will find, he promised, almost 100 per cent of the family humor is slanted toward the foibles and shortcomings of women.

Most family humor pokes fun at the wife, mother and the teenage daughter, he said.

Another discovery Wachs made in researching jokes for his book: a woman's age and where she comes from are factors in her sense of humor.

"Women in the 45 to 55 age category are the easiest laughers," he said. "Single girls between 16 and whenever they get married are the hardest to make laugh."

"Southern women appear to be the most outspoken, emancipated, easy to talk to and confident. Western women are next followed by Midwesterners. Metropolitan women are on the bottom of the laugh ladder."

Wachs figures the metropolitan women don't like to appear giddy. For the same reason, the girls from 16 until they marry are poor at appreciating jokes.

The biggest laughers of all, women 45 to 55, get that way, according to Wachs, by having lived through so much. They have been through marriage, children, jobs. Very few subjects are taboo with them.

Some of the marriage jokes Wachs selected for his collection:

• No matter how often a married man changes jobs, he ends up with the same boss.

• These days when a wife gives her husband a helping hand it's usually to tie his apron.

• The woman's work that's never done is most likely what she asked her husband to do.

• It takes two to make an argument — unless you have a wife.

• Their marriage was a 50-50 arrangement. Every time she bought a $50 dress, he bought a 50-cent tie.

• A husband sent his wife a surprise present for her birthday — but luckily she wasn't home when it went off.

IODE Plans Hampers

GANGES — Plans for packing and distribution of Christmas hampers were made at recent meeting of HMS Ganges chapter IODE held in Ganges United Church Hall with Mrs. F. K. Parker presiding. Members are asked to send Christmas cakes, puddings, and other donations to the United Church Hall on Dec. 21 in time for packing at 1 p.m. The chapter voted $25 for special gifts for the hampers. Services convenor, Mrs. Colin King is in charge.

Educational secretary, Mrs. G. D. Crutchank displayed an impressive selection of books purchased as nucleus for the library of the chapters' adopted school at Quilchena.

Progress report on plans by Salt Spring centennial committee to erect a cairn in the new park was given by Mrs. E. Worthington. The chapter will share in cost of the cairn. Backboard from HMS Ganges 110 years ago — has been salvaged from the old IODE stone bench in Ganges and will be inserted in the face of the cairn. List of battle honors of HMS Ganges has been received, following request sent by the chapter to the British Admiralty.

Mrs. G. H. Holmes, world affairs convenor, read the text of HM Queen Elizabeth's message to the recent Commonwealth conference; also a report on the International Peace Garden built on both sides of the Manitoba-Dakota border.

Tea was served by hostesses Mrs. C. S. Hewitt and Mrs. B. Earl Hardie.

Duncan Dark After Crash

DUNCAN—A freak succession of incidents plunged the city into darkness for an hour Friday night, resulted in $30,000 blaze at a lumber supply firm.

It took volunteer firemen from Duncan and North Cowichan from 8:50 to about 10 to bring the fire at Butler Bros. Building Supply under control.

But their quick action was held responsible for preventing the quick-spreading blaze from jumping from the building into the adjacent lumber yard.

It all began at 8:50 p.m. with William Blacklock, 19, of Duncan, driving up Hospital Hill Road.

WHAT HAPPENED

When his car went out of control, the following things happened:

- Blacklock's car knocked down a power pole.
- The power pole smashed into B.C. Hydro high-tension wires and fireworks began.
- The snapping of the Hydro wires caused a one-hour power failure in the city.
- Then the sparks set fire to the Fourth Street building. The fire spread quickly through the interior and threatened the large lumber yard next to the store, which is also owned by the firm.

That's when 30 volunteer firemen entered the picture, aided by heavy rains.

REALLY ON BALL

"The firemen's prompt action certainly prevented a large-scale fire," one observer said. "They also might have saved some of the buildings in the city since the residential section is close to the lumber yard."

Jubilee Staff Accepts Year Pact

Royal Jubilee Hospital workers Friday accepted a one-year contract which includes a pay raise and fringe benefits.

Under the new contract, employees will receive a five-per-cent wage increase, retroactive to Oct. 1, hospital administrator George Masters said. A further increase of six per cent will be effective Jan. 1, 1967, for one year.

Annual vacation for employees after 10 years service will be four weeks, with only three weeks to be taken consecutively.

Brian Waddingham represented the Hospital Employees Association and E. E. Pearlman represented the hospital board in the negotiations.

Arbutus, Fir Grow as One

By JOHN MATTERS

An arbutus and Douglas fir growing through each other near Deep Cove are one of the most curious examples of tree life ever brought to the provincial museum's attention.

Adding to the intrigue is the fact that both trees have managed to survive in that condition for more than 100 years.

"They were really on the ball, these firemen," he added.

The spectacular blaze was witnessed by hundreds of spectators, who often hindered the firemen.

Blacklock was arrested and taken to RCMP detachment headquarters in Duncan.

He was alone in the car when it went out of control, but was not injured.

However, the car — an old model, was a complete writeoff, police said.

BEFORE CLOSING

The power failure inconvenienced businessmen and shoppers as it brought darkness during the busiest Friday night period—just before closing time, which here is 9 p.m.

There was close to $100,000 in stock at Butler Bros. premises.

together for more than a century.

"As soon as we read in the Colonist that Dr. Szczawinski was looking for information on things like this we called him," said Mrs. Taylor, who has sold her paintings of flowers to greeting card manufacturers.

The botanist said he has received 20 other reports of rare trees which are "very valuable."

"Many people wrote that there was an odd-looking or very old tree on such-and-such a street corner but often those already were catalogued."

Dr. Szczawinski will be using the information in displays in the new museum.

Mrs. Taylor said she hoped a fence would be built around the Douglas fir and arbutus because it could become a tourist attraction.

"I've seen things less spectacular than this which get a lot of tourist interest," she added.

They are opposite the Indian reserve on West Saanich Road, almost the last trees on the beach side of the drive.

No partridge. No pear tree.

No idiom.

Milliner's Funeral Today

Funeral services will be held this afternoon for Mrs. W. H. DeCosta, well-loved former queen of Victoria's millinery circles who died of cancer Tuesday in Royal Jubilee Hospital.

Highly respected in millinery circles, Rosalie, as she was affectionately known, created hats for many of Victoria's best-dressed women in her shop on

TAUGHT DESIGNING

Mrs. DeCosta also gave time each week to teach hat designing at the Silver Threads Centre in Centennial Square.

Mrs. DeCosta knew she had to undergo an operation for cancer, but postponed her trip to hospital until she had finished the hats for the Miss Victoria contestants and had seen her hats worn on the stage in the first night of the contest.

VISITED HOSPITAL

The young contestants showed their appreciation of Mrs. DeCosta by showing up at the hospital in a group, with armloads of flowers.

In hospital, she continued making and designing hats, making them for the nurses and fellow patients as well as customers.

CANCER SHOWS

Mrs. DeCosta produced millinery styles for a number of B.C. Cancer Fund shows, raising more than $2,000 in a period of two years.

She is survived by her husband, Wilfred, of 2032 Neil; two sons, Glenison in Toronto and John in Miami; three grandchildren; one sister, Mrs. C. Coull of Cobble Hill; three brothers, Leonard and William Finch of Toronto and Albert of Miami.

Rev. J. A. Roberts will conduct the services at 3:30 p.m. today in McCall Brothers Funeral Chapel.

At the family's request, flowers are declined, but donations may be sent to the B.C. Cancer Fund, 1900 Fort.

When we first started selling cosmetics we found that it was a lot like dispensing prescriptions. We couldn't treat it as a sideline with one or two brands. And we found we couldn't leave beauty counseling in the hands of a junior clerk.

That's why today we have the largest, most up-to-the-minute selection of cosmetics and toiletries in the province. And with over 60 Cunningham drug stores, each with its own highly trained cosmetician, you don't have to tramp all over town to find what you want.

For the adventurous kind of woman, who would love to try those new wild and wonderful shades, by all means come in and talk to any one of our expert cosmeticians. She'll tell you if that new fuchsia pink lipstick is 'you'. And if it isn't, too. Which is another beautiful part of dealing with Cunninghams.

At Cunninghams we care.

Strange Carnival Sight Wil Chug Down Mackenzie

By GERRARD McNEIL

OTTAWA (CP)—It will take a world's fair to imprint 1967 on the memory of many Canadians, but Jim Whelly hopes a single ferris wheel will do the job in the North.

The organizer of the Northwest Territories program announced Tuesday that a ferris wheel will be the big draw on the Mackenzie River centennial barge.

WHEEL BOUGHT
Mr. Whelly, publisher of a weekly newspaper in Fort Smith, N.W.T., now is looking for one.

own first whirling ride should be able to foresee the excitement next summer.

The wheel will stand astride one of the twin 115-foot barges that will move down the Mackenzie, towed by a tug, from Great Slave Lake to the Arctic Ocean.

Floodlit at night, the floating exhibition will churn into docks with horns blowing, pennants flying and a band playing Here Comes the Showboat.

The CBC is holding talent shows in the Mackenzie Valley now to help find guides who can speak the many languages of the river as well as entertain.

ODD CREW

Cree, Loucheux, Dogrib Indians, Eskimos, miners, missionaries, Mounties and others make up the thin populations of about 20 settlements along the river.

Besides the ferris wheel, the barges will carry a panorama of the wonders of man and his world.

There'll be models of an Imperial Oil refinery cranking unit, the planned CNR turbopump, the Carillon lock system on the Ottawa River, the Douglas Point nuclear power station. The city of Edmonton is building a $10,000 model of its planned City Centre development for the barge.

"This is going to take more things to fewer people at less cost than any other centennial project," says Mr. Whelly, a Nova Scotian who went north eight years ago.

LOVELY TOWNS

A cow originally was proposed as the major attraction on the barge — cows are as rare as ferris wheels in the north — but the appeal of a showboat for the lonely communities couldn't be denied.

The barges are being supplied by the Northern Transportation Company, a Crown corporation.

Many Others Trying

More Than Million Canadians Have Quit Smoking

OTTAWA (CP) — More than 1,000,000 people have overcome the habit of smoking, the health and welfare department said in releasing the latest survey on smoking in Canada.

The study also shows that of the estimated 5,500,000 Canadians who still smoke, more than 45 per cent have seriously tried to quit.

Health Minister MacEachen says the results are significant when it is realized that at least 300 young Canadians acquire the habit every day.

"The figures not only show a large number of Canadians are personally concerned about cigarette smoking, they have been able to break the habit."

The study by Canadian Facts Ltd. between November, 1965, and January, 1966, among people 15 years and older showed that among present non-smokers, 32 per cent of the men and nine per cent of the women at one time smoked regularly.

MANY SMOKE LESS

It also says there is evidence some people can ease off in their smoking and that, among those who smoke cigarettes only occasionally, 46 per cent of the men and 23 per cent of the women — a total of nearly 150,000 persons — formerly smoked cigarettes daily.

B.C. showed the highest percentage of former smokers — 49 per cent of the men and 17 per cent of the women — and Quebec the lowest — 30 per cent of men and eight per cent of women.

QUEBEC LOWEST
B.C. also showed the highest proportion, at 53 per cent, of regular cigarette smokers who have tried to quit and Quebec the lowest at 37 per cent.

Among men, those who formerly smoked were more common in urban than rural areas. It was 50-50 with women.

Attempts to quit were more common among those under 40 but the men who actually did were more frequently 40 or older and the women between 20 and 39.

MANY DISSATISFIED
"Over-all, however, the findings indicate dissatisfaction with their cigarette smoking habits is common among all age groups."

Of those surveyed, 44 per cent had stopped steady smoking for more than five years, 19 per cent for three to five years, 19 per cent for one to two years and 15 per cent for less than a year.

Why did they quit? Thirty-two per cent mentioned health reasons.

DOCTORS' ORDERS
Fourteen per cent specified coughing, throat irritation or bronchitis and 10 per cent doctors' orders or suggestion.

Twelve per cent found the habit too expensive and another 12 per cent "just decided to quit."

Among men, 21 per cent said they now prefer a pipe.

Dr. Tiger said the book was not suitable for children but would not harm adults or a certain number of teen-agers.

He found the work of the late Ian Fleming "infinitely more sanguine and perverse than this particular book and more likely to deprave and corrupt."

His comparisons with the James Bond books were supported by other witnesses.

Feast Back In Japan
TOKYO (AP)—The Japanese government has revived the Feb. 11 Kigenetsu Feast, one of the principal symbols of Japanese nationalism, which was abandoned after Japan's defeat in the Second World War.

Mythology says the nation was founded Feb. 11, 660 B.C., by its first emperor, Jimmu, a descendant of the sun goddess.

Smallpox Main Target Of 10-Year World Fight

GENEVA (UPI) — The World Health Organization is about to launch its most ambitious and most vital campaign ever — to free mankind of the scourge of smallpox in 10 years.

Starting next year and due to end in 1977, the smallpox eradication program is a multi-million-dollar endeavor.

The cost pales in comparison to the death, pain and misery caused by the disease. If it does not kill, smallpox disfigures, or blinds. One in every five cases of blindness in endemic areas in Africa is caused by the disease.

This most definitely need not be so, the organization says. "Every case of smallpox today is unnecessary, every smallpox death is an unnecessary death," the organization emphasizes.

Very simply, says the organization, smallpox can be eradicated in most areas purely by blanket vaccination of the population. This won't be easy.

During the first year of the campaign — 1967 — some 220,000,000 vaccinations will be undertaken. The problems are

Former Car Lot Boys Become Specialists

By HARRY BERNSTEIN
The Los Angeles Times

LOS ANGELES — A program turning "car lot boys" into "auto detail specialists" graduated its first class here in a sequel to the government's move last year to make floor maintenance mechanics of janitors.

However, the Manpower Development and Training Act project is not just a matter of giving a worker a better title for what usually is regarded as a low-paying job with few prospects for advancement, according to project director Arthur F. Giffis.

The automobile detail specialists training school gets its recruits primarily from the unemployed, chronically unemployed. The pilot program started here 16 weeks ago has only 30 students at a time.

PROMPT JOBS
"We can put almost every graduate of our program to work with new and used car dealers who now use untrained people and have one of the highest rates of turnover in employment of any industry," Giffis said.

In the past, anybody coming in off the street was hired for cleaning new and used cars and making them ready for delivery to customers, he said.

Such jobs usually paid only the required minimum wage of $1.25 an hour. "But we don't send our men out to a job that doesn't start at $1.75 and go to $2.25 an hour," Giffis said.

HIGHER PAY
"It was the same way with the school for janitors — they are being turned out here at the rate of 1,200 a year, and they get higher pay than janitors because they are really floor maintenance mechanics who understand how to use the machines and chemicals they work with," he said.

"Our auto detail specialists can, first of all, come right off the relief rolls and earn $47 a week, subsistence, plus $5 per dependent for the first four weeks of the program."

"Then they go in an on-the-job program where they are paid by the employer. And the employer gets $300 for the first 60 working days of the man's job to insure proper 'break-in' and supervision of the trainee."

RIG DIFFERENCE
The classes include everything from proper methods of cleaning and polishing engines to the use of solvents, "and hundreds of other items which, separately, seem small, but if put together, mean the difference between a car lot boy and an auto detail specialist," he said.

In addition, many car dealers contract their work out to small auto detailing firms, and the small business administration is ready with financial help to those graduates who can qualify for forming their own companies.

"We started to put our men into regular car wash places, but the pay was too low, and the demand for their newly-acquired talents is high in the auto industry," he said.

Aid of both the established floor maintenance mechanics' school and the auto detail specialists' school is to find useful work that can be up to $4,500 a year, with no long periods of schooling which frequently intimidates the chronically unemployed.

Overdue Work Finished In 1966 City Program

By A. H. MURPHY

By the end of 1966, miles of road will have been repaved, thousands of tons of garbage removed and millions of gallons of water distributed in Victoria.

A progress report from the city engineer's department, presented until the end of the year, says local improvements have been carried out on 25 city streets and more than three miles of sidewalk, curb and gutter have been laid down.

STREETS NAMED

The repaving program for the year included Douglas Street from Market to Tolmie, Esquimalt Road from Springfield to Dominion, Johnson Street from Blanshard to Cook, Blanshard Street from Douglas to McClure, and Fort Street from Douglas to Government.

The three outstanding bridges in the streets and bridges program for the year were the widening of Fort Street at the Dandanelles, the redecking of Johnson Street bridge and the development of a city heliport.

A number of intersections were redesigned to cut down traffic hazards. These included Fairfield and Foul Bay Road, Foul Bay and Gonzales, Kiwanis Way and Cook, and Lawndale and Quamichan.

The report, released by the chairman of the city council, public works committee, Ald. Cecil Parrott, said the $3,104,000 departmental budget also covered an extensive watermain replacement program.

EXTENSION MAINS

Fifteen mains were replaced for a total length of 14,000 feet — mostly of six-inch pipe. Five new extension mains totalling 7,000 feet in length. Some 132 new supply connections were made, six new hydrants installed and seven replaced.

A large part of the board of works program is underground, where the department laid 7,000 feet of new storm drains in diameters from six to 45 inches and 4,000 feet of sanitary sewer varying in diameter from six to 24 inches.

CREEK ENCLOSED

A major achievement during the year was the enclosure of Bowker Creek.

Pollution and contamination along the length of the stream have for years been feared by health authorities as possible sources of disease and even epidemic. This hazard was put to a minimum with the laying of a dike which directed the flow underground.

Restriction in mortgage funds had a depressive effect on construction during the year, but the total for building permits still exceeded $13,000,000.

OFFICE BUILDINGS

Forty single-family dwellings were started during the year, 11 apartment blocks with 379 units, five office buildings, six commercial buildings and six industrial buildings.

More than 25,000 tons of garbage were collected during the year, a volume five per cent higher than 1965.

Restriction in mortgage funds had a depressive effect on construction during the year, but the total for building permits still exceeded $13,000,000.

REPLACEMENT PLAN
For little more than the ordinary expenditure on lighting, a replacement scheme was put into effect which saw an improvement on many Victoria streets during the year.

Low-output incandescent lamps and luminaires were replaced with high-output mercury vapor lamps.

AREAS NAMED

Residential areas improved included all of James Bay, all of south Fairfield west of Cook to Dallas and east to Douglas, half of the Fairfield area between Dallas and Fairfield and St. Charles and Cook, and the Rockland area.

In addition, special lighting projects included the illumination of Pioneer Square and Bastion Square and the flood-lighting of the Crystal Garden.

Garden Notes

By M. V. CHESNUT

In the spring of 1963 I had the unhappy experience of standing by and watching helplessly while a beloved small tree in our garden slowly died. The loss, too, was all the more painful because it was unnecessary: it was caused by a simple act of omission on my part.

The tree was a Dolga crabapple, which I consider the prettiest of all the crabs even though it is rated as an edible fruit tree rather than one of the ornamental flowering crabs. Our tree was five years old and covered itself every spring with a profusion of sweetly scented blossoms which perfumed the air for yards around.

The fruit of the Dolga is a little smaller than most of the edible crabs, but the flesh is red all the way through and it makes a jelly far superior to ordinary crabapples — a ruby red jelly with a delicate wine-like flavor. We still have some of the jelly in our fruit cupboard — it is saved for special occasions — but the tree is gone forever, and all because I failed to give it any protection against field mice through the winter.

The cause of death was gnawing; the mice had chewed the bark away in a complete circle around the trunk just above ground level. Rabbits are frequent offenders as well as field mice, and both these rodents are becoming troublesome in our part of the country.

During the winter when their natural food is scarce, they turn to our trees, especially young ones on which the bark is tender and succulent. It wouldn't be too bad if they took only the old bit of bark, but in almost every case the trees are curled by gnawing all the way around the trunk. When this happens, very little can be done to save the life of the tree.

You see, the sap movement in a tree takes place not in the heart of the wood but in the green, slimy layer that lies just under the outer bark. When this phloem, as this sap-conducting layer is called, has been eaten away, all contact with the roots is lost and no sap can reach the upper part of the tree.

Surprisingly, our lovely little tree actually lasted out briefly after it had been mortally wounded in this way, and it even produced a few pathetic blossoms before the leaves shrivelled and died. I presume it was able to coast along for a few days on the nutrients stored in the branches and upper trunk, but as soon as this small reserve was exhausted, the tree died.

There is an emergency operation that can save a stricken tree if performed in time. Lengths of wood are taken from the upper branches and grafted across the girdled portion, forming bridges to carry the life-giving sap, but in our case we didn't know anything was wrong until it was too late. Not until the leaves died did I make a careful examination and discover the mouse-damaged bark.

It is easy enough to prevent this damage. In the late fall or early winter, simply spray or paint the lower bark with one of the chemical repellents especially formulated to turn back hungry mice and rabbits. Several of these preparations are on the market under such names as Z.I.P., Skool, No-Nib! and Bunny Bar.

In each case, the chemical is sprayed or painted on the vulnerable parts of the tree. It isn't poisonous nor harmful in any way to the tree or to wild life, but works by virtue of the bitter taste it imparts to the bark. The chemical — I believe the active principle is thiram — is long-lasting, and one treatment will protect a tree or shrub throughout the whole of the winter.

The Little World of SHEILAH GRAHAM

Levine Human Dynamo

HOLLYWOOD (NANA) — Anyone who thinks Joe Levine is slowing down had better read on. "Here are just a few of my projects," said Joe casually. "I'm doing Little Me in London, changing the Sid Caesar role to a woman's — I've already talked to Shirley MacLaine about it. I'm excited about my deal with Mike Nichols to direct The Graduate for me in Hollywood. We'll get an unknown for the boy. The daughter could be Mia Farrow. For The Ski Bum, I'm after Henry Fonda and Jane Fonda. I'm releasing The Spy with the Cold Nose (starring Laurence Harvey) at Christmas. We are finishing the scoring of the Mastroianni picture, Shoot Loud — Louder I Don't Understand. We are scoring Capote of the Golden Bulls (starring Stephen Boyd)."

"Then in England next March with Stanley Baker producing and starring, I shall film, Robbers' Tale — It's the great train robbery, but we can't use that title. As you know, I bought The Adventurers from Harold Robbins before he wrote it. I'm also buying Dream Merchants. I'm also making Diamond Spy with Nat Cohen in London and Africa. I own the film rights of Generation. And I'd like to do it with Fonda who starred in the play."

Also on the agenda is Bob Saffron's Is the United States Ready for Self-government? I'm doing three pictures back to back in Brazil with James Booth and Gila Golan — the first is Land of the Pharaohs. Then, Romola Gary's Promise at Dawn. Vittorio de Sica, who is directing, wants Ava Gardner and Alain Delon. This is for June in Paris and Poland."

Also, When the Lion Feeds in Africa. And The Boomers, about a breed of men who work on bridges — most of them are Indians. And Levine's current Woman Times Seven, starring Shirley MacLaine with Peter Sellers, Michael Caine, Alan Arkin, Rossano Brazzi, etc. "I've made, bought, imported, co-produced, or produced 300 pictures in seven years," said Joe. Not bad for a man about whom people have been saying, "He's slowing down." We should all be as slow as Levine.

British actress Susan Leigh slipped into New York to visit real estate charmer Tony Leeds, before and after she attended the Acapulco film festival where, by the way, Lynn Redgrave received a rousing ovation after she made her speech in perfect Spanish. It was the more noticeable because of the halting Spanish spoken by Merle Oberon who has lived in Mexico for many years — ever since the marriage to her Mexican millionaire. Regardless, the two most beautiful women at this festival were Merle and Dolores Del Rio, neither of whom will see 55 again but who do not have a single wrinkle between them. I know how they do it, but who can take so much time to be so beautiful?

Max Von Sydow is hoping his sympathetic role of the father in David Nusskind's television version of The Diary of Anne Frank will change his image. Of course he played Jesus in The Greatest Story Ever Told, but that was special. He's a narrow-minded missionary in Hawaii and a neo-Nazi in The Quiller Memorandum. In real life you couldn't find a nicer chap.

David Wolper, who has produced some fine documentaries, closed a deal for two hour-long TV specials with Sophia Loren. One will be a biography of Sophia, the other a musical filmed at her fabulous villa near Rome. I've been there and it will make a marvellous background for the singing and dancing. It's just across the way from the Pope's summer palace.

Has it been printed that Alan Arkin will co-star with Audrey Hepburn in Wait Until Dark?

"You've told that story a thousand times. These bulbs are waterproof."

"Junk... nothing but junk!" he said pawing through the boxes. "I wouldn't be caught dead standing out there in the snow dragging this wretched stuff over the fence."

"I know. You're the type who would buy roller skates for Tiny Tim!"

"Do you have a ladder?"

"I don't need one. I'm going to balance a bar stool on the milk box."

"I knew it," he said, "You just couldn't stand to see me sit in here where it's warm. You've got to involve me in your Disneyland extravaganza. All right, we might just as well do the job right. First, I'll make a sketch of the tree and we'll figure out mathematically how many blue, gold and red bulbs it will take to make it look right."

"You ruin everything," I crumbled. "You and your planning. Did anyone ever tell you you're about as much fun as a fever blister?"

"I tell you what," he shouted, jumping out of his chair. "Let's keep it simple this year. I'll put a 60 watt lightbulb in the porch light and we'll all stand around and sing, 'Good King Wenceslaus. You know, I bet I'm the only one here who knows the second stanza by heart...'"

Smog Soupy Again

NEW YORK (UPI) — The city's air pollution index shot past the critical point Friday night as summer-like weather in the New York metropolitan area brought a return of smog conditions similar to those of the U.S. Thanksgiving holiday weekend.

A spokesman for the air pollution control board said the smog index reading was up to 39 in the period between 6 and 7 p.m. EST. The spokesman said the critical point was a reading of 30.

However, no smog alert was sounded immediately, although such an alert was called during the Thanksgiving weekend when the average reading during a 24-hour period was 33.

University Autonomous

MONTREAL (CP) — Sir George Williams University has announced it will be financially autonomous from the YMCA within a year.

Founded in 1959 as part of the YMCA school system, it has been granting degrees as a college since 1936.

Adding to the weather woes of the east coast was a massive area of fog which also moved in during the night.

At Poughkeepsie, N.Y., visibility was reported at zero while White Plains, N.Y., reported visibility of only a third of a mile.

Butcher Barely Escapes

BERLIN (UPI) — An East German butcher, minus his trousers and jacket lost crawling through Communist barbed wire barriers, led his wife and three children to freedom in West Berlin Friday.

The five refugees suffered only minor cuts from the barbed wire, even though they triggered an escape alarm and Communist guards fired machine-gun bursts.

Public Smoking Facing Ban

LONDON (UPI) — The British government is considering a law to ban smoking in public.

Worried about lung cancer statistics showing one death every 20 minutes, Health Minister Robinson, himself a cigarette smoker, told the House of Commons Friday he was considering the step.

It would, sources said, ban smoking in movie houses, theatres, all forms of public transport and all stores and shops. Smoking at sporting events was likely to be permitted, they said. It would be too difficult to enforce the law there.

"We must do what we can to remove the incentive for smoking," said Robinson.

He told parliamentarians he would make an announcement on the ban later. He might also curb cigarette coupon schemes and advertising, he said.

Pipe smoking and cigars might be exempt, sources said.

'Hilarious Fun' Costs $100

The price of Chinese food skyrocketed in central magistrate's court Friday when two revellers were each fined $50 for stealing two orders from a delivery van.

Edward Hawryluk, 21, of 1747 Stanley, and Jerry Yalloway, 21, of 2183 Epworth, both pleaded guilty to a charge of theft under $50.

DELIVERY VAN

Court was told the two men had been at a party and, at about 1:30 a.m. Nov. 27, took $7.85 worth of Chinese food from a delivery van parked nearby while the driver was away making a delivery.

Both admitted they had been drinking at the party.

STORE EMPLOYEES

The two said they did not appreciate the seriousness of the act at the time.

Both men are department store employees.

Magistrate Ostler said, as he imposed the fine, he supposed they would be the first to yell if somebody came into the store where they work and stole something.

Richard Labrecque, CFB Esquimalt, was fined $35 after pleading guilty to a charge of being a minor in possession of liquor.

Two youths, John Lyons, 17, of 1039 Jenkins, and Allan Laatsch, 17, of 576 Heatherly, pleaded guilty to multiple charges of car stealing.

Court was told Lyons took a car from the 600 block Broughton on Nov. 24. He left the vehicle at Jenkins and Jacklin Road in Langford.

A few days later he went back to the car with two other boys and the car was driven to the Metchison area where it went into a ditch and was abandoned.

PARKING AREA

Lyons took a car from a downtown store's parking lot Dec. 1 and that night picked up Laatsch and drove to the University of Victoria's parking area where Lyons stole another car.

Laatsch drove the original stolen car and smashed it up in Oak Bay.

SCHOOL GROUNDS

They took a car from a hotel parking lot and, after driving it around for awhile, left it about 9 p.m. on the Burnside school grounds.

An hour later they took a car from the parking lot of a bowling alley and abandoned it at Anchorage Road in Colwood after being chased by the RCMP.

The two youths were remanded until Dec. 13 for sentence.

Education Talks New Year Project

Community leaders are being invited to listen and speak at an education conference to be held here in January.

The Centennial Community Conference on Education will be jointly sponsored by the Greater Victoria School Board and the Greater Victoria Teachers' Association.

It will be held in the Oak Bay Beach Hotel on successive weekends, Jan. 20-21 and Jan. 27-28.

Steering committee co-chairmen are Trustees Leslie Karagialis and Ray Wunderlich, president of the teachers' group.

FOR INFORMATION The conference will be an exchange of information, the co-chairmen say. Participants will hear what the school district is doing and will be invited to express their views.

One objective, according to organizer Kenneth Bloomfield of the school board staff, is "to help people who are thinking about education to get the answers."

Premier Hits Office Parties

Premier Bennett has made a plea for British Columbians to show a new kind of restraint during the Christmas holiday period.

Mr. Bennett, who is a teetotaler, urged the public to "avoid office parties and be careful on the highways as we enter the Christmas season, so it will be a happy and joyous New Year for all the citizens of B.C."

That small repair or renovation job can be done before Xmas.

U.S. Dump Goes Up

Juggling Denied

TORONTO (CP)—Mark Tanz, president of Aetna Investment Corp., said Friday statements made in the Commons Thursday by Frank Howard, NDP member for Skeena, regarding the operations of the company are untrue in every respect.

U.S. troop strength in Viet Nam swelled to 363,700 as a contingent of 1,700 soldiers arrived at the port city of Vung Tau.

The ammunition dump explosions were at Long Binh, the target of Communist attacks Oct. 28 and Nov. 18. U.S. spokesmen said casualties and damage at the installation were light.

Over North Viet Nam, U.S. warplanes attacked bridges and communications lines Friday. Low clouds hampered visibility and there was no assessment of damage, U.S. spokesmen said.

Serious Pneumonia Or Ticklish Cough?

DALLAS, Tex. (AP)—Jack Ruby, the stubby strip joint boss who killed Lee Harvey Oswald, was taken to Parkland Hospital late Friday with an illness described as a serious case of pneumonia.

"That guy's dying," said Ruby's sister, Eva Grant. The jail doctor said Ruby had a "throat-tickling kind of cough"—and no fever.

Ruby

afternoon. His condition was listed as serious. The admitting diagnosis was pneumonia.

Ruby was taken to a private room and hospital authorities said only visitors approved by Decker would be permitted to see him.

Eva Grant, Ruby's sister, arrived at the hospital soon after her brother. She told reporters he had been ill for three weeks and had not been properly treated.

Decker said, "I understand he's had a cold for several weeks." But he said Ruby had not been exposed while in jail and added "this all came about because of a routine examination" by Dr. Callahan.

Smog Heats Montreal

MONTREAL (CP)—A heavy smog accompanied by record high temperatures of 47.7 degrees for Dec. 9 enveloped Montreal Friday.

The conditions were expected to lesson in intensity as cooler air was forecast although rain also was expected.

Threaten Strike

MONTREAL (CP)—Management and union negotiators are expected to hold talks this weekend in a bid to avert a threatened strike of 350 mail truck drivers that would paralyze Montreal's Christmas mail deliveries.

PRESSURE ON IN RHODESIA

By ANTHONY WHITE

SALISBURY (Reuters)—Rhodesian industrial and business leaders are reported to be increasing pressure on Prime Minister Ian Smith and his white-minority regime to make a final attempt to settle the independence crisis with Britain.

Worried at the impact mandatory sanctions might have on Rhodesia's still-developing economy, they have been urging Smith to try some new initiative that could result in Britain's suspending its appeal to the United Nations Security Council to slap stiff trade embargoes on Rhodesia.

SLIM CHANCE

But a leading commercial figure, who reported the move, said he gives the businessmen only a slim chance of success.

The Smith regime seized independence from Britain last year rather than submit to British demands for eventual Negro-majority rule.

MAIN QUESTION

Among Rhodesians the main question still is unanswered: Will the country now become a republic?

Smith warned that if Britain were to take the Rhodesian issue to the UN it would be the same as cutting the country out of the Commonwealth. In which case, he said, Rhodesia would become a republic whether it liked it or not.

QUESTION EVADED

But Friday, Smith skirted around the possibility of an early declaration of a republic.

He told reporters: "We haven't given this any serious thought. I think what we've got to do is to let the dust settle."

Smith said he does not regard Britain's call for mandatory UN sanctions as the end of hopes for a negotiated settlement.

MEANWHILE, Britain's sanctions moved opposition from all three political parties in neighboring, white-ruled South Africa.

Premier John Vorster, announced after a meeting with Opposition Leader Sir de Villiers Graaff in Johannesburg.

Thursday night the "standpoints in the (South African) government remains a policy of formal neutrality in what it regards as a domestic dispute."

But Vorster said on several occasions recently that his government is irrevocably opposed to trade sanctions and boycotts against anyone. Graaff has urged all-out support for Smith since Rhodesia's unilateral declaration of independence a year ago.

Oil No Worry To Ian Smith

LONDON (Reuters)—Rhodesian Premier Ian Smith said in a television interview Friday night he is not worried about a possible oil embargo against his country.

Smith also said he could not declare Rhodesia a republic until he has obtained a mandate from the Rhodesian people.

Asked if he agreed Rhodesia could not survive a successful oil embargo, Smith said, "I've no idea what a successful oil embargo would be like."

Asked if he had plans to stop an oil embargo or to survive it, Smith said, "I have no worries as far as that is concerned."

Zambia Lashes U.K. Selfishness

UNITED NATIONS (CP)—George Brown, in a restrained reply, called the Zambian statement "arbitrary and untrue."

Kapwepwe said the British motion asking the Security Council to invoke selective, mandatory sanctions against Rhodesian exports is "another trap to bind African governments and this council to continue on Page 2

Lonely Ancient Wants Divorce

HATTIESBURG, Miss (AP)

—Sylvester Magee, who began life as a slave and claims to be 123 years old, has filed suit to divorce his wife on grounds she deserted him.

Court records in Forrest County showed Friday Magee had sued for divorce, claiming Marie Magee, who now lives in Poughkeepsie, N.Y., left him in 1953.

Magee said he still loves his wife and, because of his health and age, he needs her companionship but she steadfastly refuses to return to his bed and board.

Magee does not seek custody of the couple's 16-year-old daughter Marie, who was born in 1908 when her father was 108.

Although exact proof is hard to come by, it's generally accepted Magee was born in Carpet, N.C., May 29, 1841, and was sold to a Mississippi plantation owner at 13.

Magee quietly celebrated his 125th birthday at his small Hattiesburg home in May while recuperating from a bout with pneumonia.

Magee says he obtained his freedom after the fall of Vicksburg and serving with Union troops. He suffered two battle wounds.

Fund Donors Snap Record

A record $942.80 Friday lifted the Colonist 500 Fund total more than $200 over the fund total for this same day last year.

Dec. 10 last year the fund total stood at $6,566.11. Today it stands at $6,777.19.

And numerous are the donors to the fund. From towing companies to fraternal organizations, from Cubes and Brownies to In Memoriams, from private individuals to just initials, from Anonymous, from sailors.

Tuesday a heartwarming donation was received from Michael McKibben, 6, of 1234 Oakmount.

Michael, a victim of cerebral palsy, receives a $1 per month allowance. "Michael figures he's buying some little boy a present," Mrs. McKibben said of her son's $2 donation.

Likely more than one little boy, Michael! Any good-hearted Victorian can help the 500 neediest families in the area to a little brighter Christmas by sending or bringing in a donation to The Daily Colonist, 2631 Douglas, or Avis Rent-A-Car, 800 Douglas.

The Avis office is open Sundays and the company's parking lot is available to those wishing to make a donation.

VANCOUVER (CP)—A 20-year-old student, ordered by the court to write a 5,000-word essay on his experiences with marijuana, has pleaded with young people not to use the narcotic.

Richard McKinnon of Toronto said he started on marijuana after reading the drug was not a heinous destroyer of a healthy mind.

This aroused his curiosity. Now he has learned his lesson.

Magistrate Les Bewley ordered the essay Nov. 29 as a condition of a two-year suspended sentence after McKinnon pleaded guilty to trafficking in marijuana.

The magistrate said he hoped the exercise would deter other young people from experimenting with the drug.

McKinnon was asked to detail what led him to marijuana, what he learned during his 24 days in Oakalla awaiting trial and what advice he had.

McKinnon said in his essay he became aware of marijuana a year ago.

"I was astounded to see before me, in print, details of the drug's addictive nature. In fact, I felt the drug, if what was written was true, had suffered a great injustice to its name."

"I read in daily, weekly, monthly and bi-monthly publications, in reference texts and in seemingly authoritative books, all presumably authored by knowing men and women."

"I was led to believe that, taken in lesser quantities, it was a superlative sedative; taken in greater quantities, a mildly psychedelic influence."

McKinnon said his first experience with marijuana came at a friend's home in Toronto. He had no further contact with it until he came under personal and academic pressure at Vancouver Junior College last summer.

A student friend told him about the sedative powers of marijuana.

The Toronto student told of pondering his past and at future he could not foresee while lying on an infested mattress in a dirty jail cell.

He also told of meeting a heroin addict and trafficker whose girl friend resorted to prostitution to pay for their habits.

"He was saying I would learn," McKinnon wrote. "I'd bloody well learn to be like him, as if it was a great privilege to be a depraved junkie."

McKinnon, now back in Toronto, summed up:

"I had a lawyer who realized that to live with myself in the future I had to be honest now, a probation officer who understood in part what I went through and believed me, loving parents willing to sacrifice anything to help me the honorable way, and a magistrate with enough feeling for people to give me a chance to repay."

Nicklaus, Palmer Regain Lead In Pairs Tourney

PALM BEACH GARDENS, Fla. (AP) — Jack Nicklaus and Arnold Palmer finished the third round of the $275,000 PGA best-ball golf championship at dusk Friday, firing a 63 to regain the lead and move two strokes ahead of the field at 192.

The Palmer-Nicklaus marathon lasted five minutes short of six hours as play was slowed by high winds and 69 other teams competing for the $50,000 top money.

The slow play agitated Nicklaus and Palmer.

"For everyone's sake, golf has got to be speeded up," said Palmer.

"And there's only one remedy — they have got to start moving along faster. We waited at every shot."

Nicklaus and Palmer were only minutes from darkness when they finished and officials already were preparing to shift starting times for the final round to allow them to hole out in the morning.

Golf's most famous team had nine birdies in carding the identical score that gave it the first-round lead. After 54 holes, each has 13 birdies — and two over-par — in bringing the tournament to 24 under par.

The best round ever in team play on the master 6,869-yard east course belonged to the Cupits. Jacky made 10 alone and the team hit eight in a row to drop the record by one stroke.

On his own ball, Jacky carded an official 63 and cut four strokes off the individual course record. He called it "the best round I have ever played."

"The wind was very much a factor. The course was three times harder in the wind. It was a matter of putting."

The Toronto team of George Knudson and Al Blanding added a 68 to their 69-67 for 204 total.

Totems Vie for Hoop Title

Vic High Chosen for Trip

Many Victoria athletes have been eyeing a trip to Quebec for the First Winter Games but George Andrew's Victoria High Totems are happy to make Regina their Centennial stop.

Totems, the defending provincial basketball champions, have been chosen to represent B.C. in this Canadian Centennial high school basketball tournament in Regina, January 28 and 29.

Luther College will play host to the tournament as their special project for 1967. For approximately fifteen years the college has sponsored a prairie school tournament.

This year the Regina Institute applied to the Centennial Committee to expand the tournament to a national level and eight teams from B.C. to Quebec will participate in the single knockout event.

An invitation was sent to the B.C. High School Boys Basketball Association and the body decided to send the Totems as their representative.

Under Bill Garner's direction last year, the Totems upset Oak Bay in the high school final at UBC.

Bowling Roundup

Young Girl Scores High

By BRIAN DOHERTY

A 10-year-old girl with a 34 average bowled a 200 single and a 310 double in the youth bowling council fivepin competition at Gibson's.

On target was Linda Sawchuk, a grade five student at Oaklands Elementary School.

Linda is in her second year of bowling, a pastime she prefers to other sports.

She is the daughter of Mrs. Louise Sawchuk, 2911 Shakespeare. Her younger brother, Ricky (8) is also a keen bowler.

Aurora Lanes' Christmas tournament begins Dec. 13 and runs through to Jan. 2.

Men's singles will be over eight games and mixed doubles three games.

Also in tenpin action at Aurora, Lee Doney had a 634 three-game score. His first game was 147 and then he hit stride for a 257 and a 235.

Bill Mackereith had a 418 single game in fivepin league action at Gibson's. He had nine strikes and a right hand corner on the 10th ball.

Bill spared and got another strike. His three-game total was 893.

It was the second 400 game bowled in league play this year. Earlier Doreen Gins, in the Friday Breakfast Club, bowled a 425.

The Master-Bantam tournament is being held at Gibson's

Saanich Hoop

Three games are scheduled in the Peninsula Minor Basketball League tonight at Saanich Agricultural Hall.

Brentwood plays Saanichton at 7 in pre-midget boys action and Cordova Bay provides the opposition in midget and bantam girls games at 7:45 and 8:30.

Totems will give a good account of themselves in the tournament.

The club will leave Victoria by air on the Thursday at 7 a.m., play one game on Friday and two on Saturday before flying home on Sunday.

Added incentive is present for the Totems to repeat as provincial champions this spring. A trip to Alaska to play the Alaskan champions is currently on the drawing boards.

Leafs Ready to End Losing Streak Tonight

Victoria Maple Leafs will have no new talent at Memorial Arena tonight as they set about trying to end an eight-game losing streak at the expense of the improved Seattle Totems but a week of stiff workouts and a new determination may be enough.

It won't take too much of an improvement. While the Leafs' troubles really started when defenceman Fred Hucul joined centre Larry Keenan on the injured list they needed just a bit more in five of the games in their backward slide to have won or at least gained a tie.

It was a combination of a lot of little things which kept the streak going. It was one pass too many or one too few, some bad shooting and some bad positional play, a missed check or a soft goal against and quite often, some bad luck.

And, perhaps as much as anything, the Leafs, who last season were at their best when they were the most aggressive, have allowed themselves to be pushed around a bit too much.

MORE EFFORT

The Leafs may not be championship contenders until Hucul and Keenan get back into the lineup but only a little extra effort is needed to project them back into the playoff picture.

"If we had been getting we have. All we have to do to clobber it would be a differ-get started again is to put our story," coach Frank Marois something extra into it."

laments, "but we have been so. Figures bear Mario out. Four close that we could have won of the games in the losing three or four more games than streak were by a single goal and two others by two goals. So far this season the club which last season won 15 of 24 games decided by one goal is 0-6 in the close ones.

Biggest reason is the lack of goals from the line which last season led the Western Hockey League by scoring 101 goals. The Leafs have only 10 in their eight-game losing streak and the Milan Marcetta-Bob Barlow-Andy Heberton unit has produced only three of them — two by Heberton and one by Marcetta.

As a unit the line has produced 18 goals this season, which is about 20 less than they had at this stage last season.

Barlow, who had 17 in his first 23 games a year ago, has only one this season and Marcetta, who had 15, has eight.

Only four penalties were called in the game with two going to each team.

New Building

DUNCAN — A little shack that made history on the Cowichan Indian Reserve is being replaced by a new, $8,000, five-room house. The shack's picture was used by press and television at the beginning of September to demonstrate appalling housing conditions on that reserve.

The ramshackle building belongs to Howard Jim and his young family. Now Howard and his father, Elmer Jim, who lives close by in another shack, help workmen to erect the new house only a few yards away.

The house will be paid for by the Indian Affairs Branch and so will another one now under construction in the Mission Road area of the reserve.

HOMES

Starting in April a total of 20 new homes will be built on the Cowichan Indian Reserve next year. This was the promise given by Minister of Indian Affairs Arthur Laing when he paid a brief visit to the reserve last month.

Mr. Laing's trip to the West Coast followed the outcry of indignant Cowichan Indians who complained they were not given the full benefit of federal aid.

FULL ASSESSMENT

Cowichan Indian Agent Ron Sampson said Friday a full housing assessment will be carried out by a special team next week.

The team consists of W. S. Barnes from the regional office Indian Affairs Branch office; E. D. Halper, Cowichan Indian Agency assistant; and Abner Thorne of the Cowichan Indian Band Housing Committee.

HOUSING PRIORITY

Mr. Sampson said the team will establish housing priority following an earlier survey of housing on the reserve.

Also starting in April will be a four-pronged measure to overcome poor housing on the reserve.

The four points are:
Rental - purchase scheme for those who have some source of income;

• The building of homes for needy band members who have no income at all;

• A second mortgage for Indians who desire to build their own homes with the help of NHA loans;

• And funds for band members who wish to improve their existing houses.

Conviction Upheld
By Appeal Court

VANCOUVER — The B.C. Court of Appeal Friday rejected the appeal of Jackson Ginger against his conviction for the non-capital murder of an Indian girl at Port Alberni.

Ginger had been convicted of murdering Martha Jones, 16, Port Alberni girl whose body was found near a Canadian Pacific Railway roundhouse July 29, 1965.

Ginger, represented by lawyer Tom Berger, had claimed that he was denied equality before the law because there were no native Indians included on the Nanaimo jury list when he was tried.

The Indian fisherman also alleged Indians have been excluded from the jury list for many years.

The appeal court judges in unanimous decision ruled that the onus was on the appellant to show there had been a failure on the part of the jury selectors to include Indians and that this onus had not been discharged.

The judges said it would be most difficult for the selectors to know whether any person was an Indian because the names on the voters' list do not show nationality.

Wires Kindle Building

Duncan Dark
After Crash

DUNCAN—A freak succession of incidents plunged the city into darkness for an hour Friday night, resulted in $30,000 blaze at a lumber supply firm.

It took volunteer firemen from Duncan and North Cowichan from 8:50 to about 10 to bring the fire at Butler Bros. Building Supply under control.

held responsible for preventing the quick-spreading blaze from jumping from the building into the adjacent lumber yard.

It all began at 8:50 p.m. with William Blacklock, 19, of Duncan, driving up Hospital Hill Road.

WHAT HAPPENED

When his car went out of control, the following things happened:

• Blacklock's car knocked down a power pole.

• The power pole smashed into B.C. Hydro high-tension wires and fireworks began.

• The snapping of the Hydro wires caused a one-hour power failure in the city.

• Then the sparks set fire to the Fourth Street building.

The fire spread quickly through the interior and threatened the large lumber yard next to the store, which is also owned by the firm.

That's when 30 volunteer firemen entered the picture, aided by heavy rains.

REALLY ON BALL

"The firemen's prompt action certainly prevented a large-scale fire," one observer said. "They also might have saved some of the buildings in the city since the residential section is close to the lumber yard."

"They were really on the ball, these firemen," he added.

HINDER FIREMEN

The spectacular blaze was witnessed by hundreds of spectators, who often hindered the firemen.

Blacklock was arrested and taken to RCMP detachment headquarters in Duncan.

He was alone in the car when it went out of control, but was not injured.

However, the car — an old model, was a complete write-off, police said.

BEFORE CLOSING

The power failure inconvenienced businessmen and shoppers as it brought darkness during the busiest Friday night period—just before closing time, which here is 9 p.m.

There was close to $100,000 in stock at Butler Bros. premises.

College Word

NANAIMO — A letter from Leslie Peterson indicates that the final word on the regional college can be expected in a month.

BACK TO ISLAND

Mr. and Mrs. K. Wilson returned to Salt Spring in 1938. Shortly after they bought the Vesuvius Bay Lodge which they renovated and operated for a number of years. Later they bought the Keith apartments in Ganges.

He had resided in Ladysmith for the past 3 years.

Funeral services were held in St. Mark's Anglican Church Tuesday, Dec. 6, interment, St. Mark's Cemetery. Ven. Archdeacon R. B. Horsfield officiated.

Pledges Trail Objective

COURTENAY—Pledges totaling $26,500 have been received so far in the 1966 United Good Neighbor Appeal in the Comox Valley.

The amount is $7,000 short of the objective of $33,500, but Chairman Randy Klaver says the books will remain open until the end of the year and it is not too late to make a contribution.

Mr. Klaver said the committee feels there is more money yet to come in and they feel confident the final count may be over the present $26,500.

A meeting will be held next week and the funds will be dispersed among the participating agencies at that time.

Students Plan Holiday Concert

DUNCAN — Students of the Cowichan School District will join forces under the direction of music teacher Mrs. R. G. Cox and school band instructor E. A. Stannard to present a Christmas concert, Dec. 19, on Station Street. A massed school choir and school bands will participate.

Hotel Fire

She Shed Tear
On Spoiled Beer

PORT ALBERNI — Considerably more damage than was first anticipated was done by a fire which struck the 40-room King Edward Hotel in downtown Port Alberni Thursday night.

Volunteer and regular firemen of the Port Alberni brigade struggled for more than three hours to control the stubborn fire, which sent billows of smoke into the street, although no flames erupted outside the building.

Fire Chief Maurice Smith estimated at least $30,000 damage.

Speeder
Thanks
Police

NANAIMO — A man thanked RCMP officers for having stopped him on the highway when he was speeding.

Donn Gardner, 30, of Hollywood Avenue, pleaded guilty to speeds of 85 to 90 m.p.h. on the Island Highway.

"I'd rather be here than on the side of the road," he said. Magistrate Eric Winch referred to the excessive speed and commented that his was hardly an oversight.

Fine was $42.50 and Gardner's previously clean licence was marked.

In another case, a young man was given one month to raise his $25 fine or face 21 days in jail.

Robert Alexander Pearson, 19, pleaded guilty to creating a disturbance in a public place Dec. 8.

He claimed that he was helping his friend into the RCMP station when he was pushed against the wall by an officer, which prompted his angry outburst.

The man he was trying to help was Larry Ronald Merlo, 20, of 309 Pridoux. He was remanded without plea, and on $250 bond. He faces charges of theft of an automobile.

The charges arise from the attempts to break through a fence at General Auto Sales with a 1963 model.

Failing to breach the fence, he got out and was later arrested by RCMP. A scuffle ensued outside the station, involving Pearson.

Owner Flees Blaze
But Troller Guttled

NANAIMO—A plume of smoke drifted about Nanaimo harbor at noon Friday as a ship burned.

Tight Lines, a 32-foot troller boat, was gutted by fire, and drifted with wind and tide while harbor patrol poured streams of water into the hull.

After extinguishing the fire, the hull was towed to Newcastle Island and beached in a small bay.

The fire started near the northern tip of the Island, but in half an hour the boat had drifted to within 300 yards of shore at Stevenson's Point.

The owner, Bill Mearns of 570 Maple Street, said he had gone out to fish with a hand line for something for supper.

He decided to fish along Newcastle Island when his gas engine stopped.

It backfired when he tried to start it and flames gushed out of the engine room.

Attempts to put it out with the fire extinguisher failed as the heat was too intense.

Mr. Mearns, suffering from a weak heart, had to abandon the vessel when he became faint from the heat of the fire.

He put out for shore in his dinghy and was later picked up by a pleasure boat.

When he was only a few hundred feet from his boat he heard explosions, which he took to be his safety flares igniting.

Total damage is not known.

Magistrate Points Out

Youth Fortunate

NANAIMO — Only several months stood between a youth, 18, and a possible life sentence.

Magistrate Eric Winch pointed this out to Kenneth Cook, Cranberry Road, Chase River.

Cook is charged with contributing to juvenile delinquency, in that he kept a 14-year-old girl out of school and attempted sexual intercourse with her.

But whether it was sympathy or sorrow, no one seemed quite sure.

Magistrate Winch informed the youth, and if he had been successful in his attempts, he would have been charged with statutory rape, which could mean a life sentence.

The girl is over 14 by some months.

Cook, with a record of five or six charges in criminal court, was remanded without plea until Dec. 16.

He is under a $1,000 recognizance bond.

Mid-Summer Meeting

Valley Gets Agricultural Plum

KLAUS MUENTER

DUNCAN — The city of Duncan will be the centre for the mid-summer meeting of the B.C. Federation of Agriculture in June, said Archie Stevenson, federation president.

The decision was made at the recent annual convention of the federation in Victoria.

The last mid-summer meeting of the federation held here was 12 years ago.

Returning from Victoria to his Fairbridge dairy farm, Mr. Stevenson agreed with another Cowichan Valley agricultural expert, Hamish Mutter, who stated the convention was a strong indication of good co-operation between the provincial department and agriculture.

Mr. Mutter is manager of the Cowichan Co-operative services at Duncan.

He mentioned one point at random which emphasizes his statement — The department of agriculture assists with problems arising from insecticides and fungicides which threaten to contaminate plant and animal life.

He said steps will be taken to correct the situation.

Mr. Mutter explained, "In the past these chemicals have been used indiscriminately through lack of knowledge, not necessarily only on the part of farmers but also on the part of the producers."

He added that no difficulty has been experienced in this area.

"I think the co-operation between the department and farmers has become better."

"The department is very anxious to get on with farm management programs to prepare farmers for the great competition in this day and age."

Mr. Mutter also pointed out the department tries to bring crop failure insurance to other areas and to cover different types of crops.

He said fruit farmers in the Okanagan Valley a number of years ago started an insurance scheme on their own which has worked successfully.

B.C. Federation of Agriculture President Mr. Stevenson agreed with Mr. Mutter's comment about the good co-operation between farmers and the government.

He said, "Perhaps, because the minister is a farmer himself that he is so keen to work very closely with other farmers."

On Quadra

Regional District
Is Turned Down

CAMPBELL RIVER—Taxpayers on Quadra Island turned out in force at a special meeting where they voted against joining a regional district.

The result of a secret ballot showed 79 votes against and only three for, to the question: "Should Quadra Island join the Strathcona Regional District?"

The results of the vote have been forwarded to Municipal Affairs Minister Dan Campbell, whose department recommends the formation of such regional districts.

About 100 Quadra Island residents turned out Dec. 7 to hear the recommendations of a special study group on the formation of such a district.

They also learned more about such a district, the services offered and how these are paid for.

The study group consisted of nine members, selected from all communities on the Island plus the trustees of the fire protection district.

The landowners listened attentively to the report and asked many questions before turning hands down on becoming part of such a regional district.

A motion then was carried out that William Law represent Quadra Island at future meetings of the main study group on the Strathcona Regional District.

City Car Insurance Drops 9 Per Cent

Victorians next year will be able to buy car insurance for about nine per cent less, but northern Vancouver Island residents may face an increase of about the same amount, it was learned Thursday.

The last insurance hike was in January this year when Greater Victoria rates increased by an average of 10 per cent. Rates throughout B.C. increased by an average of 9.6 per cent.

This means that average premiums in Greater Victoria will be bumped back to slightly above what they were almost a year ago.

Most British Columbia motorists will find some saving. All Canada Insurance Federation officials said in Vancouver.

PROVINCIAL DROP
Indications that premium levels in the province will drop by an average of 3.2 per cent in 1967 were found in a survey on behalf of the 209 insurance companies the federation represents.

An All Canada spokesman said the average decrease would be nine per cent here, five per cent in the Greater Vancouver area, and nine per cent in the Fraser Valley and Okanagan.

ALL GO UP
North Vancouver Island, the Kootenays and northern area rates will be increased from two to nine per cent.

B.C. continues to be the most expensive place in Canada to have an accident—the average third-party claim totals $577—but the frequency of claims has dropped to make the rate reductions possible, said the spokesman.

'Train Nurses In Two Years'

British Columbia's six schools of nursing unanimously agreed their training programs should be reduced to two from three years.

George Masters, administrator of Royal Jubilee Hospital, a member of a committee studying the proposal, said Thursday the shortened training period would increase B.C.'s output of nurses by 40 or 50 per cent.

"The schools of nursing are unanimous in the idea that nurses can be taught adequately in two years," said Mr. Masters.

"It seems the most reasonable method of increasing the number of nursing graduates, using our present resources and organizations."

B.C.'s nursing schools are located at Royal Jubilee and St. Joseph's Hospitals in Victoria, Vancouver General and St. Paul's Hospitals in Vancouver, New Westminster's Royal Columbian Hospital, and Royal Inland Hospital at Kamloops.

The committee investigating nurses' training is made up of a member of the board of directors of each hospital, the administrators, directors of nursing and directors of nursing education.

Also involved are representatives of the Registered Nurses' Association of B.C., B.C. Hospital Insurance Service and the B.C. Hospitals Association.

A subcommittee working on the details of the two-year proposal will meet in January, said Mr. Masters, who added he did not expect the plan to go into effect for two or three years.

Student nurses at both Royal Jubilee and St. Joseph's Hospitals last summer suggested shortening the present three-year training period. They wanted more academic study and less time spent working in the wards.

Student nurses, who pay only nominal tuition fees, pay for their training in work performed. At St. Joseph's a third-year trainee spends about 75 per cent of her time working.

Bridge Help Near?

NANAIMO — The George Pearson bridge may yet be widened, thereby eliminating one of the worst traffic bottlenecks on the island.

Mayor Pete Moffat disclosed he had received a letter from Highways Minister P. A. Gagliardi that the design work for the widening had been completed and had been sent to Ottawa for approval.

The bridge has long been a source of annoyance at the 4 p.m. rush hour, when traffic is backed up several blocks, and frequently RCMP are needed to override the lights to ensure the swift movement of traffic.

No date has been set for the calling of tenders.

Expo 67 Pavilion Wanted

DUNCAN — There's a possibility the collapsible Indian pavilion at Expo 67 will be reassembled in the Cowichan district as a centre for Vancouver Island native exhibits.

The proposal will be sent to Ottawa by Cowichan Band Council.

According to Abel Joe, a council member, "It could be a tremendous tourist attraction."

The band took the action after it was told by J. W. Churchman, director of Indian affairs, the pavilion might be reassembled in Ottawa and become a contemporary Indian arts and crafts centre.

The band thinks it may be possible the Expo pavilion would be used in Cowichan instead of a cultural centre proposed for here.

At the same meeting, band council went on record as being in favor of forming a national group of registered Indians.

The council will hold a special meeting to discuss and study the matter.

The suggestion came from the Federation of Saskatchewan Indians.

John B. Tootoos of the federation asked if Cowichan thought such an organization could be formed to "protect our rights and to bring our views to the attention of governments."

$1,000 Grant Bid Made

COURTENAY — The Courtenay Centennial Committee has asked for an outright grant of $1,000 from the city. The committee chose Secretary Charles Pearce as the spokesman.

He gave a brief resume of centennial activities in 1966 and outlined the proposed program of 1967, which he said would be highlighted by the July 1 celebrations.

With activities for the past year completed and all grants from provincial and federal governments in hand, the committee has a balance of $800 on hand.

Mr. Pearce explained that in order to ensure a well-planned and successful program in 1967, Brannan Lake School for Boys it would be necessary to have for an indefinite period. The more funds for operating purposes and for this reason he requested donation of $1,000 from city council.

In addition he told council the committee hoped to raise more funds from sale of tickets for the Barkerville show in January, the Canadian centennial caravan next summer and a centennial ball next fall.

ANY SURPLUS
Mrs. M. Vickberg, chairman of the committee, explained any surplus funds would be returned to council to help cover the cost of operating Puntledge Park, the city's centennial project.

Mr. Pearce said the committee takes part in many activities and will probably participate in the opening of St. Joseph's Hospital and the new school at Sandwick.

Pioneers will be honored during the July 1 ceremonies when 68 will receive the centennial medal. The same day 200 pioneers and their wives, in addition to special guests, will be hosted at a luncheon.

Besides the $1,000 grant he asked council to make provision for mobile restrooms in Lewis Park, July 1, to paint and repair the grandstand and make adequate provision for the cleanup of the park July 2.

TO FINANCE
The matter was referred to the finance committee for consideration as an item to be included in the provisional budget.

The same committee received a request from the recreation commission for a grant of $1,423.22 to cover a deficit. The council agreed to pay the amount if found correct.

The village of Comox has agreed to accept the recommendations of associated engineers in regard to the water survey and the matter was referred back to the water committee for further study and report to council.

WANT INCLUSION
Residents in the areas of Lake Trail, 21st and Cumberland Road, Towler and Martin roads, have petitioned council for inclusion in the city boundaries. The letter was given to the boundary committee.

With the Christmas season close at hand, aldermen voted to give each staff member, both inside and outside workers, a turkey.

Band Sound Cheers Valley Music Ears

By MARIE CADORETTE
DUNCAN — Cowichan Valley cheered the sounds of the bands at Wednesday's special presentation of band music here.

Performing for their parents, friends and just plain music lovers were more than 200 bandmen from the local senior, junior and elementary schools.

Music ranged from spirited marches to difficult classical renditions.

SMOOTH RUN
The 1½-hour program ran smoothly without any major difficulties.

To keep with the "In" crowd, a branch of the senior band, the Henchmen, broke out some pop music.

On the same theme the brass played Tijuana Taxi. And so the program really rolled.

FINE MUSICALS
Also on the agenda were bits from two popular musicals — Pyjama Game and Sound of Music.

Vocalists were Carol Daniels and Graeme McCauley.

One of the highlights was the much-improved performance of the George Bonner junior group.

MORE EVEN
Because of the increase of its student population, the school now competes on more even terms with the larger junior high school bands in the district.

Even elementary students were in the spotlight.

Practising Saturdays since October, the youngsters worked hard to give a professional touch to a march.

ALSO NEW
Also new was a beginners' string orchestra which played a soft Welsh tune, All Through the Night.

After the performance Musical Director E. A. Stannard lauded the students' efforts and praised the bands' progress.

The bands have been operating for only three years and the director feels it takes at least four years before they can reach a "professional standard."

But Mr. Stannard isn't stopping there.

His next step is the organization of a symphony orchestra for the Valley.

There's one hitch — he's lacking the strings. All those interested shouldn't have any trouble finding him.

The suggestion came from the Federation of Saskatchewan Indians.

John B. Tootoos of the federation asked if Cowichan thought such an organization could be formed to "protect our rights and to bring our views to the attention of governments."

No partridge. No pear tree.

No room.
Not with 3 crows, a rabbit, a dog, two union labels, six Indians, a biplane, a train and twenty-nine trees!

No one has ever tried to "modernize" the Old Style label or the distinctive flavor of the beer inside.

Call it old fashioned if you like. Old Style is still made by men who take plenty of time to brew and age our beer in the traditional way.

U.S. Dump Goes Up

Juggling Denied

TORONTO (CP)—Mark Tanz, president of Aetna Investment Corp., said Friday statements made in the Commons Thursday by Frank Howard, NDP member for Skeena, regarding the operations of the company are untrue in every respect.

Mr. Howard said in the Commons that Aetna juggled stock dealings in an unscrupulous way so that "a few fellows in the know" made hundreds of thousands of dollars.

"The statements as reported in the press as made by Mr. Howard in the House of Commons last night regarding Aetna Investment Corp. are completely untrue in every respect and I can only attribute his remarks to the fact that he was misinformed or lacked the true information regarding this company," Mr. Tanz said in a statement.

U.S. troop strength in Viet Nam swelled to 363,700 as a contingent of 1,700 soldiers arrived at the port city of Vung Tau.

The ammunition dump explosions were at Long Binh, the target of Communist attacks Oct. 28 and Nov. 18. U.S. spokesmen said casualties and damage at the installation were light.

SMALL ARMS

Guards in the area reported coming under small arms fire just before the first explosion. The incident appeared part of a Viet Cong plan increasing guerrilla and terror attacks to hamper U.S. troops carrying out a major campaign to clear the enemy from areas surrounding Saigon.

BRIDGES HIT

Over North Viet Nam, U.S. warplanes attacked bridges and communications lines Friday. Low clouds hampered visibility and there was no assessment of damage, U.S. spokesmen said. Guam-based bombers again hit suspected troop concentrations 32 miles northwest of Saigon early today. The B-52 jets had pounded the target Friday.

Fund Donors Snap Record

A record $942.80 Friday lifted the Colonist 500 Fund total more than $200 over the fund total for this same day last year.

Dec. 10 last year the fund total stood at $6,566.11. Today it stands at $6,777.39.

And numerous are the donors to the fund. From towing companies to fraternal organizations, from Cubs and Brownies to In Memoriams, from private individuals to just initials from Anonymous, from sailors.

Tuesday a heartwarming donation was received from Michael McKibben, 6, of 1234 Oakmount.

Michael, a victim of cerebral palsy, receives a $1 per month allowance.

"Michael figures he's buying some little boy a present," Mrs. McKibben said of her son's $2 donation.

Likely more than one little boy, Michael!

Any good-hearted Victorian can help the 500 neediest families in the area to a little brighter Christmas by sending or bringing in a donation to The Daily Colonist, 2631 Douglas, or Avis Rent-A-Car, 800 Douglas.

The Avis office is open Sundays and the company's parking lot is available to those wishing to make a donation.

Serious Pneumonia Or Ticklish Cough?

DALLAS, Tex. (AP)—Jack Ruby, the stubby strip joint boss who killed Lee Harvey Oswald, was taken to Parkland Hospital late Friday with an illness described as a serious case of pneumonia.

"That guy's dying," said Ruby's sister, Eva Grant.

The jail doctor said Ruby had a "throat-tickling kind of cough"—and no fever.

The hospital said the admission diagnosis was pneumonia and listed Ruby's condition as serious.

Sheriff Bill Decker said he ordered Ruby transferred to the hospital on the advice of Dr. J. M. Pickard, county health officer.

Dr. John W. Callahan, Pickard's assistant, said he had been seeing Ruby daily for two weeks because of a cold.

"I examined him at 10 a.m. today and his cold seemed to be subsiding. I thought he was improving. I was surprised to hear tonight that he had gone to the hospital."

Mrs. Grant visited Ruby in his hospital room and then told a reporter: "I'm not leaving. I'll be here all night. I don't even trust the hospital. ... That guy's dying."

Except for defence claims that he was mentally sick, it was Ruby's first reported illness since he gunned down Oswald, later named by the Warren Commission as assassin of President John F. Kennedy, Nov. 24, 1963, two days after the assassination.

In February, 1964 he was given the death sentence for murdering Oswald.

The Texas Court of Criminal Appeals ordered a new trial for Ruby recently, and last week Judge Louis Holland set the second trial for Wichita Falls, probably in February.

Parkland Hospital issued this statement:

"Jack Ruby was admitted to Parkland Hospital at 5:15 this afternoon. His condition was listed as serious. The admitting diagnosis was pneumonia."

Ruby was taken to a private room and hospital authorities said only visitors approved by Decker would be permitted to see him.

Ruby's sister arrived at the hospital soon after her brother. She told reporters he had been ill for three weeks and had not been properly treated.

Decker said, "I understand he's had a cold for several weeks." But he said Ruby had not been exposed while in jail and added "this all came about because of a routine examination" by Dr. Callahan.

Smog Heats Montreal

MONTREAL (CP)—A heavy smog accompanied by record high temperatures of 47.7 degrees for Dec. 9 enveloped Montreal Friday.

The conditions were expected to lesson in intensity as cooler air was forecast although rain also was expected.

Expert's Essay: Lay Off Marijuana

VANCOUVER (CP)—A 20-year-old student, ordered by the court to write a 5,000-word essay on his experiences with marijuana, has pleaded with the court to let him use the narcotic.

Richard McKinnon of Toronto said he started on marijuana after reading the days in Oakalla awaiting trial and what advice he had.

"McKinnon said in his essay he became aware of marijuana a year ago."

This aroused his curiosity. Now he has learned his lesson.

Magistrate Les Bewley ordered the essay Nov. 29 as a condition of a two-year suspended sentence after McKinnon pleaded guilty to trafficking in marijuana.

The magistrate said he hoped the exercise would deter other young people from experimenting with the drug.

McKinnon was asked to detail what led him to marijuana, what he learned during his 24 days in Oakalla awaiting trial and what advice he had.

"I was led to believe that, taken in lesser quantities, it was a superlative sedative; taken in greater quantities, a mildly psychedelic influence."

McKinnon said his first experience with marijuana came at a friend's home in Toronto. He had no further contact with it until he came under personal and academic pressure at Vancouver Junior College last summer.

A student friend told him about the sedative powers of marijuana.

"The Toronto student told of pondering his past and a future he could not foresee while lying on an infested mattress in a dirty jail cell."

He also told of meeting a heroin addict and trafficker whose girl friend resorted to prostitution to pay for their "habits."

"He was saying I would learn," McKinnon wrote. "I'd bloody well learn to be like him, as if it was a great privilege to be a depraved junkie."

McKinnon, now back in Toronto, summed up:

"I had a lawyer who realized that to live with myself in the future I had to be honest now, a probation officer who understood in part what I went through and believed me, loving parents willing to sacrifice anything to help me the honorable way, and a magistrate with enough feeling for people to give me a chance to repay."

Magee

Lonely Ancient Wants Divorce

HATTIERBURG, Miss (AP)—Sylvester Magee, who began life as a slave and claims to be 125 years old, has filed suit to divorce his wife on grounds she deserted him.

Court records in Forrest County showed Friday Magee had sued for divorce, claiming Marie Magee, who now lives in Poughkeepsie, N.Y., left him in 1863.

Magee said he still loves his wife and because of his health and age, he needs her companionship but she steadfastly refuses to return to his bed and board.

Magee does not seek custody of the couple's 16-year-old daughter Marie, who was born in 1950 when her father was 106.

Although exact proof is hard to come by, it's generally accepted Magee was born in Carpet, N.C., May 29, 1841, and was sold to a Mississippi plantation owner at 15.

Magee quietly celebrated his 125th birthday at his small Hattiesburg home in May while recuperating from a bout with pneumonia.

Magee says he obtained his freedom after the fall of Vicksburg and serving with Union troops. He suffered two battle wounds.
